

Interinstitutional Assurance for a Foreign Performance Site

The Interinstitutional Assurance may be used by institutions that are involved in a Public Health Service (PHS), National Science Foundation (NSF), or National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) funded animal activity when the institution (named as Institution) lacks its own animal care and use program, facilities to house animals, or an Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC) or Animal Welfare Committee and will conduct the animal activity at an Assured Institution (named as a performance site).

A. Applicability

This Interinstitutional Assurance between the Awardee Institution and Assured Institution (hereinafter referred to as Institutions) is applicable to research, research training, and biological testing involving live vertebrate animals supported by the PHS, NSF, or NASA and conducted at the Assured Institution.

B. Responsibilities

- The Institutions agree to comply with the PHS Policy on Humane Care and Use of Laboratory Animals (Policy), or provide evidence that acceptable standards for the humane care and use of the animals in PHS, NSF, and NASA conducted or supported activities will be met as described in the approved Assurance of the Foreign Institution.
- The Assured Foreign Institution agrees to be guided by the International Guiding Principles for Biomedical Research Involving Animals (PDF) and will comply with all applicable provisions of the laws, regulations, and policies governing the care and use of laboratory animals in the jurisdiction where the activity is conducted. The prime awardee must establish appropriate policies and procedures to ensure the humane care and use of animals and bears ultimate responsibility for compliance with the PHS Policy in all PHS, NSF, and NASA supported animal activities.
- The Institutions acknowledge and accept responsibility for the care and use of animals involved in activities covered by this Assurance. As partial fulfillment of this responsibility, the Institutions will make reasonable efforts to ensure that all individuals involved in the care and use of laboratory animals understand their individual and collective responsibilities for compliance with this Assurance, as well as all other applicable laws and regulations pertaining to animal care and use.
- The Awardee Institution acknowledges and accepts the authority of the Assured Institution where the animal activity will be performed and agrees to abide by all conditions and determinations as set forth by the Assured Institution.
