When you can apply for Part A (if you have to pay a premium for it) and Part B

Initial Enrollment Period

This is the first chance you have to apply. It lasts for 7 months. It begins 3 months before the month you turn 65, and it ends 3 months after you turn 65. Coverage will begin the month after you sign up.

General Enrollment Period (January 1–March 31 each year)

If you sign up during this time, your coverage will start the month after you sign up. In most cases, you'll have to pay a late enrollment penalty. The penalty is added to your monthly premium, and it goes up the longer you go without coverage.

- Part A penalty: If you have to pay a premium for Part A, your premium will go up 10%. You'll pay it for twice the number of years you didn't sign up.
- Part B penalty: Your Part B premium will go up 10% for each 12-month period that you could have had Part B but didn't sign up. You'll pay it for as long as you have Part B coverage.

Special Enrollment Period

- Working aged/disabled: You have a Special Enrollment Period if you're covered under a group health plan based on current employment. To use this Special Enrollment Period, you must:
 - Be 65 or older and currently employed
 - Be the spouse of an employed person, and covered under your spouse's employer group health plan based on his/her current employment
 - Be under 65 and disabled, and covered under a group health plan based on your own or your spouse's current employment

You can sign up anytime while you have group health plan coverage based on current employment or during the 8 months after either the coverage ends or the employment ends, whichever happens first. If you sign up while you have group health plan coverage based on current employment, or, during the first full month that you no longer have this coverage, your coverage will begin the first day of the month you sign up. You can also choose to have your coverage begin within any of the following 3 months. If you sign up during any of the remaining 7 months of your Special Enrollment Period, your coverage will begin the month after you sign up.

Note: COBRA coverage or a retiree health plan is not considered group health plan coverage based on current employment.

- International volunteers: You have a Special Enrollment Period if you were volunteering outside of the United States for at least 12 months for a tax-exempt organization and had health insurance (through the organization) that provided coverage for the duration of the volunteer service.

If you think you may be eligible for a Special Enrollment Period, contact Social Security at 1-800-772-1213. TTY users can call 1-800-325-0778.

Visit Medicare.gov to learn more about when you can sign up and special situations for people under 65 with a disability.
