For assistance, call 1-800-400-7242 ext. 4090

As a recipient of a PBGC benefit determination, you have the right to appeal PBGC's determination of your benefit if you can provide a specific reason why the determination is wrong. If you simply have a question about your benefit or how it was calculated, you should call PBGC's Customer Contact Center at 1-800-400-7242. You have 45 calendar days from the date on PBGC's determination letter to submit an appeal. If you need more time to prepare your appeal, you must request an extension from the Appeals Division before the 45-calendar-day limit expires. The appeal period will be suspended as of the date you file your request for an extension. Your request must be in writing and must state why you need more time to file your appeal and how much more time you will need. You may request an extension of time to file your appeal by using this form or by sending a letter, e-mail or fax that includes the information requested on this form. This request must be postmarked by the U.S. Postal Service or received in the Appeals Division no later than 45 calendar days from the date on PBGC's determination letter. If you use this form, please use dark ink and be sure to print clearly. Mail this form, and copies of appropriate documents, to the address shown on page 2.
