Dear contact:

I'm reaching out again to ask you to participate in JOLTS on behalf of your establishment.

We know you are busy. Our request for your time is not taken lightly. Participating in JOLTS is quick and easy. The survey has just 6 basic questions and takes just a few minutes to complete each month.

The data you provide is vitally important for monitoring the health of the U.S. labor force.

A JOLTS representative will contact you again soon. Please don't hesitate to get in touch with us by emailing joltsmail@bls.gov or calling 1-800-341-4620 and asking for from_user.

Thank you in advance for your participation in JOLTS.

Best regards,
