

Peer Learning Group Post-Survey

The NCASE project evaluators at Education Development Center are collecting feedback about the Peer-Learning Group (PLG) hosted by the National Center on Afterschool and Summer Enrichment (NCASE)

This survey is being administered by the project evaluators and should take 10 minutes to complete. Your feedback helps us determine the usefulness of NCASE TA offerings and is used to inform the project's ongoing activities. The evaluation team keeps individual responses private and reports data in aggregate form only. This survey is voluntary and you may skip any question that you do not wish to answer.

Thank you for your responses! Your feedback is important and highly valued. If you have any questions, please contact Carrie Liston at cliston@edc.org.

Wrap-up

Please indicate your availability to participate in a 30-to-45-minute online focus group with the NCASE evaluation team about this Peer Learning Group.

Evaluators will be holding at least two focus groups that bring together 4 to 6 PLG attendees from different states to chat about their experiences in this PLG. The data will be summarized and shared with the project team to help inform follow-up activities and future PLGs. The evaluation team keeps the identity of focus group participants private from the project team and does their best to remove any identifying information from findings or quotes in their reports.

Please select all the times you would be available.

There is no need to save the date now; evaluators will send an email and meeting request (for a Zoom meeting, with the option to just join over the phone)
