

Survey: 1st-time visitors (researchers and students) to Visit USASpending.gov

1. How did you first hear about USASpending.gov?
2. Are you:

A researcher:

- a. An independent researcher,
- b. A researcher with a for-profit institution,
- c. A researcher with non-profit institution,
- d. An academic researcher (professor)
 - What department are you in?
 - Do you primarily conduct research, teach, or both?
 - For research, what are your areas of interest if any?
 - What courses do you teach if any?
 - What data do you use in your research? (Please be as specific as possible)

A student:

- a. Are you an undergraduate?
- b. Are you a graduate Student?
 - a. Master's
 - b. Doctorate
- c. What department are you in?
- d. What is your major or main area of study (or research)?

3. What would you use USASpending.gov for?
 - a. Just browsing (If they select this, the survey skips to Question 4)
 - b. Downloading data for research to (If selected, the survey continues to "c")
 - c. Why would you download some data?
 - i. To produce an academic publication (journal, book, dissertation, etc.)
 - ii. To teach a class
 - iii. To write a grant proposal
 - iv. Other (Please specify)
4. How would you rate your overall level of satisfaction with USASpending.gov (1-5 stars)?
5. Would you recommend USASpending.gov to other researchers or students? (YES/NO)
6. Are there any topics for which you would like to have access to additional training resources?

Would like to be considered for a future user testing session? If so, please provide your email address below. Your feedback wi