

Author Full Name : Darla Starbuck

Received Date : 01/21/2025 05:55 PM

Comments Received :

These collections should not happen. You can get all information needed from state submissions and college board, especially since our state has undertaken such a big software upgrade this year due to federal requirement. The current collection is confusing and very complicated. Why should we have to submit data twice in two different forms?