

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 01/28/2025 10:53 AMComments Received :

I am not sure why the schools are doing this every year, I wish they could work with Infinite Campus to get everything into that system because that is where we take all the information from, but it is a long process because some of the information is not there and we have to make adhoc's to the pull information out. Also it is not clear when we have to put zero's or na in the system and then we have to go back in and fix the errors.