

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 01/31/2025 02:09 PM

Comments Received :

The mandatory CRDC is a cumbersome process that offers no benefit to a school district. Districts receive no feedback, and there appears to be no actions taken at any governmental level in response to the data submission. Good districts already monitor most of this data at the local level in a much more manageable fashion that allows them to make decisions and adjustments in a timely manner.