

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 01/20/2025 08:46 AM

Comments Received :

The OCR can get this data from the state data collections and college board. This does not need to be an added data collection for districts. District data personnel are already stretched thin with the amount of data collection necessary at the state level.

Please work with the state education agencies to collect this data. There is no need for duplicating work.