

Author Full Name : AnonymousReceived Date : 01/30/2025 03:16 PMComments Received :

I think all references to collection of data for students with "informal removal" from the classroom need to be removed. This is essentially asking for schools to document every time a student steps out of the classroom. Even in the definition of the 'informal removal' it states: "informal removals may stem from a disciplinary incident or incidents that may or may not be documented". If it was not documented then by definition it would not be something to have a count of incidents.