

Author Full Name : Anonymous

Received Date : 01/17/2025 11:43 AM

Comments Received :

Much of the information requested for the CRDC report is already reported to our state education department. This places an undue stress on school districts to replicate the information being reported and should be reported by the state education department, not local school districts.