Section 3: Shipment/Sales Data

Identify the recipient company(s) of the methyl bromide produced for second party transformation, second party destruction, QPS, global lab, and/or emergency uses, and the amount shipped to or purchased by each recipient company during the quarter.

Note: Due to a potential time lag between the date of production and the date of shipment, it is recognized that for a given quarter the information in Section 3 may not match the information reported in Section 2 for second party transformation, second party destruction, and QPS; however, it is expected that all material produced for second party transformation, second party destruction, and QPS will eventually be shipped to a second party and must be reported as such in the applicable quarterly report.

As a reminder, a copy of the transformation verification, destruction verification, QPS certification, and/or essential use certification from each second party for whom material was produced must be provided to EPA along with the submission of this report.
