

Author Full Name : Landon Smith

Received Date : 04/07/2026 08:14 PM

Comments Received :

I support renewing the information collection for the cooperative interstate shipment program because it helps small, state-inspected meat and poultry businesses sell across state lines while keeping food safe. I think it's important to keep the paperwork requirements, but I hope the agency can make them as simple as possible so smaller businesses aren't overloaded. Overall, this program is a good balance between safety and helping small producers, and I'm glad it's continuing.