People may choose one or more response categories to represent their identity or identities. The categories included in the question generally reflect sociopolitical definitions recognized in this country and do not attempt to define groups biologically or genetically. The following descriptions define each of the categories: White The category "White" includes individuals with origins in any of the original peoples of Europe. Examples of these groups include, but are not limited to, English, German, Irish, Italian, Polish, and Scottish. The category also includes groups such as French, Swedish, Norwegian, Russian, Cajun, Roma, etc. Individuals should select all that apply and report the person's additional detailed White group or groups in the space provided. Hispanic or Latino The category "Hispanic or Latino" includes individuals of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Salvadoran, Cuban, Dominican, Guatemalan, and other Central or South American or Spanish culture or origin. The category also includes groups such as Colombian, Honduran, Spaniard, Ecuadorian, Peruvian, Venezuelan, etc. Individuals should select all that apply and report the person's additional detailed Hispanic or Latino group or groups in the space provided. Black or African American The category "Black or African American" includes individuals with origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa. Data Needed
Pre-condition	VAC_CROWD_2A or 2B
Question Wording	Before you submit your responses, you have an opportunity to write a message for future generations. For example, you can write about what your life is like in 2026. Your message will be released by the National Archives and Records Administration to the public in 2102, as part of their release of census records. The message you share in this question can be used by future generations and historians to gain a perspective about this time in history or to learn more about you. Submitting a message is voluntary. By participating, you are helping to create a collection of stories to study, use, and enjoy. This opportunity is only available in the online questionnaire. Sessions close after 15 minutes of inactivity.
