Check our email address - it's official if it's from census.gov

Good morning,

You were listed as the contact for Census Bureau surveys, and we would like your opinions on some email messaging we may use for a future survey.

We would greatly appreciate any feedback you could provide. We would like to meet with you over Microsoft Teams for about 45 minutes. Any information you would provide will be confidential.

To make scheduling this conversation easier, you can choose the day and time that works best with your schedule, by clicking the link below:
