

Author Full Name : Kellen McKee

Received Date : 01/12/2026 12:03 PM

Comments Received :

We should not require a reporting on significant disproportionality. This is a sneaky way to track students according to their race and ethnicity. It is never in comparison to population totals for states. This places a burden on local and state administrators and will eventually lead to students with disabilities not identified because of an arbitrary "number" that they need to meet.