Hello,

Bottom Line: If the NEA, other State EAs, (Education Associations) and outfits like the official Autism Societies, or COPAA, etc. are in unison in support of, or in opposition to any law, rule, or regulation like their School Board 'partners' also tend to be, it is most often NOT in the best interests or well-being of PARENT'S Children who do not BELONG to Schools/Public Education EVER.

Certainly anything in this day and time that they all cry about, or shout about, scream or shriek about constantly is a form of bullying to advance their leftist agenda, and NO politics are supposed to have a strangle hold on children of Government Education funded with PUBLIC Tax Funding.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide input.

Mrs. Rooper, Ed
