

OFFICE TELEPHONE INTERVIEW JOB AID

The Special Census Supervisor may assign office clerks to complete Form SC-Q, Special Census Questionnaires over the telephone. Office clerks may complete questionnaires in instances where Field Representatives left Form SC-NV(E/S), Notice of Visit, at a housing unit. Form SC-NV(E/S), Notice of Visit, provides the SCO phone number so the respondent can complete a questionnaire over the telephone. Office clerks may also need to complete Form SC-Q, Special Census Questionnaire during Reinterview, depending on the response to Question 2 on Form, SC-RQ, Special Census Reinterview Questionnaire.

This job aid is designed to help the office clerk complete the interview over the telephone using a script to ask the questions on Form SC-Q, Special Census Questionnaire. This job aid provides instructions to ensure that you ask the questions in a telephone interview appropriately. It also ensures you provide the respondent with information about confidentiality, as required by law.

Be sure to know the Special Census Date before you begin an interview.

You will use a blank unlabeled Form SC-Q, Special Census Questionnaire, to record the answers from the respondent calling the SCO. Use a black ink ballpoint pen and capital letters when completing form SC-Q, Special Census Questionnaire.

Because you are not in the presence of the respondent where you give the respondent a copy of Form SC-CN(E/S), Confidentiality Notice, you must read the information about confidentiality contained in this job aid.

TELEPHONE SCRIPT

Introduction

Hello. I'm (Name) from the US Census Bureau.

After the greeting, provide a brief reason for your call. Ask the caller for their telephone number so you can call them back if the call becomes disconnected.

S1. Hello, I am (name) from the U.S. Census Bureau. Is this (address)?

If the respondent says no, then end the interview.

Report this situation immediately to your supervisor. The supervisor might need to assign this case to a Field Representative to complete it in the field.

S2. I will complete a Special Census questionnaire for this address. It should take about 10 minutes to complete.

Before I begin, I will read the first part of the Confidentiality Notice that explains your answers are confidential.

I need to let you know your answers are confidential and protected by law. All U.S. Census Bureau employees have taken an oath and are subject to a federal prison sentence, a fine, or both if they disclose ANY information that could identify you or your household. Your answers will only be used for statistical purposes, and no other purpose.

This project is authorized by Title 13, Section 196, of the United States Code. Your local government has requested and paid for this special census because of a specific need for up-to-date population and housing data. Although there are no penalties for failure to answer any question in this voluntary census, your cooperation is extremely important in obtaining needed information to ensure the completeness and accuracy of the results. As I mentioned earlier, it will take about 10 minutes to complete this interview.

Did you or anyone in your household live or stay at (address) on (Special Census Day)?

Yes – Mark X in this box and continue with question S3 below.

No – Mark X in this box and skip to question S4.

S3. Does someone usually live at this address, or is it a vacation or seasonal home where no one usually lives?

Usually lives here – Mark X in this box and skip to question S5.

Vacation or seasonal home or held for occasional use – Mark X in this box and skip to the Respondent Information section on page 8 of the questionnaire. See page 27 of this job aid.

S4. (Only ask if the response to question S2 (did you or anyone in your household live or stay here on (Special Census Day) was No.)

On (Special Census Day) was the housing unit at this address occupied by a different household or vacant?

- Occupied by a different household – Mark X in this box and ask— Do you have knowledge of the residents at this address on (Special Census Day)? If the respondent has knowledge of the previous household occupants, use this respondent as your proxy respondent. Continue the interview using the labeled SC-Q, Special Census Questionnaire, for this address for the Special Census Date household. Remind the respondent that the information he or she provides is for the Special Census Day household members.
- Vacant – Mark X in this box and skip to the Respondent Information section on page 8 of the questionnaire.
- Not a housing unit - Mark X in this box and skip to the Respondent Information section on page 8 of the questionnaire.

If the respondent is not knowledgeable about the previous occupants, thank the respondent and end the interview. Report this situation immediately to your supervisor. The supervisor might need to assign this case to a Field Representative to complete it in the field.

S5. Do you or does someone at this address:

- Own it with a mortgage or loan, including home equity loans.
- Own free and clear.
- Rent it.
- Occupy it without having to pay rent.

Mark x the appropriate box and continue with question S6.

S6. We need to count people where they were living and sleeping most of the time on the Special Census Day.

I am going to read a list which contains examples of people who should and should not be counted at this address.

Do NOT include College students who live away from this address most of the year, Armed Forces personnel who live away, people in a nursing home, mental hospital, etc. on the (Special Census Day), people in jail, prison, detention facility, etc. on (Special Census Day).

Do include babies and children living here, including foster children, roommates, boarders, or people staying at this address on (Special Census Day) who have no permanent place to live.

Based on these examples, how many people were living or staying at this address on (Special Census Day)?

Enter the number of people in the space provided and continue with question S7.

S7. Were there any additional people staying at this address on (Special Census Day), that you did not include in the count in the previous question? For example:
