Annual Customer Satisfaction Surveys” (OMB Control Number: 1545-1432)
TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Media and Publications (M&P) – Customer Satisfaction (CSAT) Surveys
Taxpayer Services (TS) Division -Tax Return Preparers

PURPOSE:

BACKGROUND: The mission of the IRS is to provide America’s taxpayers with top-quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax obligations and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all. To promote this mission, one IRS strategic goal is to “improve service to make voluntary compliance easier.” Key to continuous progress towards this goal is the capacity to measure the current state of taxpayer service, track changing taxpayer service expectations and the extent to which they are being met, identify critical taxpayer issues and service deficiencies, and take effective action to address and improve services.

There are four customer segments of M&P CSAT surveys. This request for renewed OMB approval specifically addresses one of the four customer segments: Tax Return Preparers.

Surveys measure external customer satisfaction with its products and services to ensure taxpayers’ access to federal tax forms, publications, and instructions to meet their obligations under Federal tax laws. Feedback from external surveys is critical for assessing customers’ perception of IRS tax products and services and to help identify, as early as possible, areas/processes that require intervention and improvement.
