Due Diligence Webinar Survey for Attendees

The purpose of this research is to help the IRS improve Due Diligence webinars for tax preparers like you. You were selected to receive this survey because our records show that you were invited to, and attended, a Due Diligence webinar. Your answers will remain private to the extent allowed by law, and your participation is voluntary. You may stop at any time or skip any question you do not wish to answer.

Your opinions are important because you will be representing tax preparers across the United States and your responses will be used to improve the webinars.

The Paperwork Reduction Act requires that the IRS display an OMB control number on all public information requests. The OMB Control Number for this study is 1545-1432. Also, if you have any comments regarding the time estimates associated with this study or suggestions on making this process simpler, please write to the, Internal Revenue Service, Special Services, SE:W:CAR:MP:T:M:SP, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, Room 6129, Washington, DC 20224.

Privacy Act Statement: We are committed to protecting your privacy rights. Our authority for requesting the information is 5 USC 301. The Return Integrity and Compliance Service (RICS) would like to collect feedback from those who do and do not attend the Due Diligence webinar in order to improve the experience for future attendees. Our intention is to keep identities of participants anonymous by aggregating information. Your participation is voluntary. If you do not participate, we will not have the benefit of your input to improve our program. You will have the opportunity to provide written comments, suggestions, or other feedback. We will not share the information you give us outside of IRS employees who need the information, unless required by law. Any information we collect and maintain will be handled in accordance with the access and privacy protection requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, the Privacy Act of 1974, the Freedom of Information Act, and IRS policies and practices. Visit the IRS Electronic Freedom of Information Act Reading Room for more information about these laws. We document much of our internal policy on these laws in IRM 10.5.1, Privacy Policy.
