Prime for Life 4.5 Instructor Fidelity Worksheet Instructions

AFTER EACH PFL 4.5 SESSION

The DoD and U.S. Marine Corps have partnered with NORC at the University of Chicago, an objective, nonpartisan research organization, to support an evaluation of the Prime for Life 4.5 course. Understanding the fidelity with which the course was implemented is important for the success of the evaluation.

As a Prime for Life 4.5 instructor, we are asking that you complete a brief fidelity worksheet immediately after each session. The worksheet should take about five minutes to complete and can be filled out online using a computer, tablet, or smartphone. Please complete this worksheet within 30 minutes of the end of each PFL 4.5 class.

You can access the worksheet by visiting <https://PFLInstructor.norc.org> or by scanning the QR code to the right. The QR code will direct you to norc.org, a non-government website, to complete the worksheet.

Frequently Asked Questions (for Instructors)

What is the purpose of the fidelity worksheet?

The purpose of the fidelity worksheet is to understand how the Prime for Life 4.5 course is being implemented and to note any classroom experiences that might influence the effectiveness of the course.

Why do I need to complete the fidelity worksheet after every Prime for Life 4.5 session?

Since each Prime for Life 4.5 session has different participants, completing the fidelity worksheet after each session is important for documenting the variety of experiences that can impact the implementation of the course.

Why do I need to provide my initials at the beginning of every fidelity worksheet?

Providing your initials each time you complete the fidelity worksheet is important for evaluating differences in implementation between instructors and how those differences could be related to course outcomes. Your initials will not be shared outside of the evaluation team.

What is the purpose of the Prime for Life 4.5 Evaluation?

The purpose of the evaluation is to understand the impact of the Prime for Life 4.5 course on the knowledge, motivations, and intentions of early career Marines. The findings of the evaluation will assist the DoD in identifying the benefits of the Prime for Life 4.5 course and barriers and facilitators to its implementation.

Who can I contact if I have questions about the evaluation or this worksheet?

If you have any follow-up questions, please contact the NORC project team at Marine-Wellness-Survey@norc.org.
