FAQ_SCREEN

Who is NORC at the University of Chicago?

NORC is a not-for-profit survey and research organization that is working with the Naval Air Technical Training Center (NATTC) and the DoD Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Office (SAPRO) to evaluate the Enhanced Assess, Acknowledge, Act (EAAA) resistance program currently being offered at NATTC. For more information about NORC, visit www.norc.org.

How do I know this form is confidential?

All feedback provided in this form will be stored separately from your name and email that you provide in this feedback form. Your name and email in this feedback form is used to coordinate delivery of your volunteer hours.

How long will this form take to complete?
The survey will take about 5 minutes to complete.

Why should I participate?

The benefits to your participation may include better prevention programming and less sexual harassment and sexual assault at NATTC and Navy overall. The feedback provided in this form will be used to better understand the experiences sailors are having within the EAAA training at NATTC and will aid NORC's evaluation of the EAAA training. Benefits may accrue to NATTC staff, who can use the evaluation results to improve prevention programming efforts to support a safer environment for sailors and staff on base.

Any immediate benefit to me?
There is no compensation if you choose to fill out the feedback form today.

Do I have to fill out this form?

No, you do not have to fill out the feedback form. It is voluntary, but in order to receive volunteer hours for completing the EAAA training, you must provide your information after completing the feedback form.

What is this form about?

This feedback form is part of an evaluation of the EAAA Training. The goal of collecting this feedback is to better understand the experiences sailors are having within the EAAA training at NATTC.
