Instruction Sheet for ATF Form 5330.3B ("Form 6, part II")

(detach these instructions before submitting application)

General Information

1. The Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives, may issue a permit authorizing any military member of the U.S. Armed Forces who is currently or has been on active duty outside the United States within the 60-day period immediately preceding, to import a firearm, ammunition, and/or defense article into the United States to the member's place of residence, provided:
 - (a) That such firearm or ammunition is generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes; and if a firearm, that such firearm is neither surplus military nor a firearm as defined in 26 U.S.C. § 5848(a); and
 - (b) that such firearm, ammunition, and/or defense article is intended for the personal use of such member; and
 - (c) that importing as intended would not constitute a violation of any provision of the Gun Control Act of 1968 (18 U.S.C. chapter 44) or of any state law or local ordinance at the place of the member's residence.
2. A military member who does not meet the above criteria may engage the services of a federal firearms licensee to import for them, provided that the firearm and/or ammunition is importable.
3. The ATF Form 5330.3B ("Form 6, part II") may be used only by qualifying military members. All other persons, including federal firearms licensees, government civilians, contractors, and military dependents, must use an ATF Form 5330.3A ("Form 6, part I") to apply for permission to import a firearm, ammunition, and/or defense article.
4. A permit is not required for a firearm or ammunition brought into the United States or any possession thereof by any person who can establish to the satisfaction of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) that such firearm or ammunition was previously taken out of the United States or any possession thereof by such person.
5. A permit is not required to bring a firearm, unless defined as a firearm in 26 U.S.C. § 5845(a), ammunition, and/or defense article, from any U.S. possession/territory (e.g., Puerto Rico, Guam, Mariana Islands, etc.), into one of the fifty states or another U.S. possession/territory.
6. Questions regarding applicability of federal excise taxes on firearms and/or ammunition should be directed to the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB). Questions regarding applicability of import duties should be directed to CBP.

Preparing ATF Form 5330.3B ("Form 6, part II")

7. Item 1. Name and address of person designated, in writing, by a military member to release the firearm(s), ammunition, and/or defense article(s) from CBP custody or to handle the shipment from the duty station outside the United States.
 8. Item 2. A military member currently stationed outside of the United States must list their foreign address, which includes APO/FPO/DPO addresses.
 9. Item 3. If no foreign seller, enter "N/A."
 10. Item 4. If no foreign shipper, enter "N/A."
 11. Item 7. The application must show a detailed description of each firearm, ammunition, and/or defense article you intend to import. The description must establish that the firearm or ammunition is generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes and meets the other importing criteria. You may include more than one firearm, ammunition, and/or defense article on a single application. Failing to supply complete information will delay processing and may cause ATF to deny the application.
 12. Item 8. The only permissible purpose for importing is the military member's "personal use." Any military member who wishes to import a firearm or ammunition for any other purpose must utilize the services of a federal firearms licensee.
 13. Item 11. Date the military member was or will be reassigned to a duty station within the United States and not the date military member was assigned to the foreign duty station. If you are currently at a foreign duty station, as indicated in item 5, provide the date of anticipated reassignment.
 14. Item 15. You may complete and submit the application electronically. If completing by hand or submitting in paper form, all entries except the signature must be typed. Signature blocks may be signed in ink or electronically signed.
