18a. Designation of Beneficiary for Survivor Annuity

Complete this section if you elected Benefit Forms D-G above.

Because you elected a joint-and-survivor annuity, your survivor annuity beneficiary designation is final and cannot be changed after PBGC makes your first payment.

The beneficiary identified below will receive the survivor annuity that continues after your death and any additional money owed to you at your death.

Ensure your choice of survivor annuity beneficiary is consistent with the information in your Retirement Benefit Estimate (name, date of birth). Any changes require a new Retirement Benefit Estimate.

If your survivor annuity beneficiary predeceases you, no continuing survivor annuity is payable. If we owe you any money at the time of your death (for example missed pension checks or any underpayments), we will pay the beneficiary(ies) you designate in Section 4.

18b. Designation of Beneficiary for Certain-and-Continuous Annuity

Complete this section if you elected Benefit Forms H-J above.

Because you elected a Certain and Continuous Annuity you may change your beneficiary identified below at any time by filing PBGC Form 711 Change of Beneficiary for Certain & Continuous (C&C) Benefits Only.

If you die before your certain period has expired the beneficiary identified below will receive benefits that continue after your death and any additional money owed to you at your death.

If you die after your certain period has expired and we owe you any money at the time of your death (for example missed pension checks or any underpayments), we will pay the beneficiary(ies) designated on Section 4.

Name your beneficiary below. You may name more than one beneficiary. State the percentage you want each one to receive, and make sure the percentages total 100%. If you do not state percentages that total 100%, the amount owed will be distributed equally among all beneficiaries.

To name more than two beneficiaries, list their names, dates of birth, Social Security numbers, contact information, and percentages on a separate sheet of paper. Sign the sheet and attach it to this form.

☐ Check here if an additional sheet is attached.

If a beneficiary dies before you, the amount owed will be distributed equally among the remaining beneficiaries.

Section 3: Spousal Consent to Elected Form of Benefit and Beneficiary

Leave this section blank if you:

- are not married.
- are married and chose Benefit Form B (Block 17) and a prospective Annuity Starting Date (on or after the date you contacted us to begin receiving benefits) in Block 15.

Your spouse must consent by signing and notarizing the block below if you:

- are married and did NOT choose Benefit Form B (Block 17)
- chose a retroactive starting date in Block 15

Your spouse's signature for the consent must be notarized by a notary public.

If your spouse does not consent, PBGC will pay your benefit in the normal married form.

To be completed by spouse:

By signing below, I consent to my spouse's election of the benefit form selected in Block 17 and the beneficiary designated in Block 18. If my spouse is offered a retroactive annuity starting date, I consent to my spouse's election of the retroactive annuity starting date in Block 15. My consent is voluntary. I have read and I understand the information provided with this application.

I understand all the following:

- I have a right not to consent to my spouse's election.
- If I do not consent and my spouse chose a prospective annuity starting date in Block 15, my spouse's benefit will be paid in the plan's automatic form for married participants, Benefit Form Choice B in Block 17. Under that automatic form, if my spouse dies before me, I will receive a benefit equal to at least 50% of my spouse's benefit for the rest of my life.
- If I do not consent and my spouse chose a retroactive annuity starting date in Block 15, PBGC will not process this application.
- If I do consent to my spouse's election, survivor benefits, if any, will be paid according to the benefit form and beneficiary designation elected by my spouse. As a result, if my spouse dies before me, I may not be entitled to any survivor benefits.
- If my spouse elects a certain and continuous annuity (Choice H, I, or J in Block 17), and if I consent to this election, my spouse can NOT make future changes to the beneficiary without my consent.
- If my spouse chose a retroactive annuity starting date in Block 15, the survivor annuity may be less valuable (that is, my monthly payment as a surviving beneficiary would be smaller) than the one available under a prospective annuity starting date.
- If I do consent to my spouse's election, I cannot revoke my consent after PBGC makes the first payment to my spouse.

Section 4: Designation of Beneficiary for Payments Owed at Death

Everyone should complete this section.

PBGC may owe you money at the time of your death. Typically, this happens if your final benefit is higher than the estimated benefit we had been paying. It may also happen if you have uncashed payments at the time of death.

- If another person continues to receive your benefit after your death (as with a joint-and-survivor or certain-and-continuous annuity), PBGC will pay any money owed to that person.
- If there are no continuing benefits or the person designated to receive continuing benefits (in Block 18 a or b of this form) dies before you, PBGC will pay any money owed you at the time of your death to the person(s) and/or entity(ies) (such as a trust, church, estate or other organization) that you designate in this section.

If you do not make a designation, or if all the beneficiaries you designate below die before you, PBGC will pay the money in this order to: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, or your next of kin.

To name more than three beneficiaries, list their names, dates of birth, relationship to you, Social Security numbers, contact information, and percentages on a separate sheet of paper, with your name and customer ID. Sign and date the sheet and attach it to this form.

☐ Check here if an additional sheet is attached.

If a beneficiary dies before you, the amount owed will be distributed equally among the remaining beneficiaries.

If all beneficiaries die before you, the amount owed will be distributed equally among the remaining beneficiaries.

This designation replaces any previous designation and will only be effective when PBGC receives it.

Beneficiary (1)	_____ %	The amount owed will be distributed equally among beneficiaries unless percentages are provided for each beneficiary, and they total 100%. If a beneficiary dies before you, the amount owed will be distributed equally among the remaining beneficiaries.
Beneficiary (2)	_____ %
Beneficiary (3)	_____ %
