

Thank You

. . . for our recent interview for the Consumer Expenditure Quarterly Interview Survey. Without your cooperation, I could not obtain the valuable information that the Department of Labor uses to update the Consumer Price Index.

Please remember that your information is strictly confidential under Title 13, United States Code. The Census Bureau uses your responses to prepare statistical summaries, so no one can identify you or your family by name.

I am grateful for your help, and I look forward to seeing you again in 3 months.

Sincerely,

Field Representative
U.S. Census Bureau
