Caution: DRAFT—NOT FOR FILING

This is an early release draft of an IRS tax form, instructions, or publication, which the IRS is providing for your information. Do not file draft forms. We incorporate all significant changes to forms posted with this coversheet. However, unexpected issues occasionally arise, or legislation is passed—in this case, we will post a new draft of the form to alert users that changes were made to the previously posted draft. Thus, there are never any changes to the last posted draft of a form and the final revision of the form. Forms and instructions are subject to OMB approval before they can be officially released, so we post drafts of them until they are approved. Drafts of instructions and pubs usually have some additional changes before their final release. Early release drafts are at IRS.gov/DraftForms and remain there after the final release is posted at IRS.gov/LatestForms. Also see IRS.gov/Forms.

Most forms and publications have a page on IRS.gov: IRS.gov/Form1040 for Form 1040; IRS.gov/Pub501 for Pub. 501; IRS.gov/W4 for Form W-4; and IRS.gov/ScheduleA for Schedule A (Form 1040), for example, and similarly for other forms, pubs, and schedules for Form 1040. When typing in a link, type it into the address bar of your browser, not a Search box on IRS.gov.

If you wish, you can submit comments to the IRS about draft or final forms, instructions, or pubs at IRS.gov/FormsComments. Include “NTF” followed by the form or pub number (for example, “NTF1040”, “NTFW4”, “NTF501”, etc.) in the body of the message to route your message properly. We cannot respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive and may not be able to consider many suggestions until the subsequent revision of the product, but we will review each “NTF” message. If you have comments on reducing paperwork and respondent (filer) burden, with respect to draft or final forms, please respond to the relevant information collection through the Federal Register process; for more info, click here.

Future Developments

Go to www.irs.gov/Form8453TR for the latest information about Form 8453-TR and its instructions.

What's New

Form 8453-TR. Form 8453-TR (10-2025) is new and allows taxpayer-applicants to electronically file an Application for Tentative Refund. (See instructions below.)

Direct deposit. The Application for Tentative Refund provides for direct deposit of any refund. (See the Application for Tentative Refund and its instructions.)

General InstructionsPurpose of Form

Use Form 8453-TR to:

- Authenticate (declare) an electronic Form 1045, Application for Tentative Refund, or Form 1139, Corporation Application for Tentative Refund;
- Authorize the ERO to electronically transmit an Application for Tentative Refund; and
- Provide the taxpayer's consent to directly deposit any refund.

Who Must File

File Form 8453-TR if you file Form 1045 or Form 1139 through a transmitter that is not an ERO. (An ERO can obtain and retain Form 8453-TR for authorization to file the Application for Tentative Refund.)

When and Where To File

File Form 8453-TR with the taxpayer's electronically filed Application for Tentative Refund. You can use a scanner to create a Portable Document Format (PDF) file of the completed Form 8453-TR. Your tax preparation software should allow you to transmit this PDF with the Application for Tentative Refund.

Specific Instructions

Name(s). Provide the name(s) of the taxpayer(s) as shown on the Application for Tentative Refund.

Identification number(s) (EIN). Provide the identification number(s) of the taxpayer(s) as shown on the Application for Tentative Refund.

Part II. Declaration and Authorization of Taxpayer-Applicant

An electronically transmitted Application for Tentative Refund is not complete nor filed unless either:

- Form 8453-TR is signed by the taxpayer, scanned into a PDF file, and transmitted with the Application for Tentative Refund; or
- The Application for Tentative Refund is filed through an ERO and Form 8453-TR is used to select a PIN that is used to electronically sign the Application for Tentative Refund.

The signature of the taxpayer(s) allows the IRS to disclose to the ERO, transmitter, and/or ISP:

- An acknowledgement that the IRS has accepted the electronically filed Application for Tentative Refund, and
- The reason(s) for any delay in processing the Application for Tentative Refund or refund.

Part III. Declaration of Electronic Return Originator (ERO) and Paid Preparer

Note: If the Application for Tentative Refund is filed not using an ERO, don't complete Part III.

If the taxpayer's Application for Tentative Refund is filed through an ERO, the IRS requires the ERO's signature. A paid preparer, if any, must sign Form 8453-TR in the space for Paid Preparer Use Only. But if the paid preparer is also the ERO, don't complete the paid preparer section. Instead, check the box labeled "Check if also paid preparer."

Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN)

Go to www.irs.gov/PTIN for information on receiving a PTIN.

Paid preparers. Anyone who is paid to prepare the taxpayer's Application for Tentative Refund must enter their PTIN in Part III.

EROs who aren't paid preparers. EROs who aren't the paid preparer of the Application for Tentative Refund have the option to enter their PTIN or their social security number in the "ERO's Use Only" section of Part III.
