Please ensure 34 CFR 300.134, .135, .136, .132, .704, .507, .506, .511, .151, .152, .153, .201 through .213, .224, .226, .504, .646, and .647 have been reviewed according to Executive Order 14219 of February 19, 2025, which requires in relevant part:

Sec. 2

Rescinding Unlawful Regulations and Regulations That Undermine the National Interest. (a)...Within 60 days of the date of this order, agency heads shall, in consultation with the Attorney General as appropriate, identify the following classes of regulations:

- (i) unconstitutional regulations and regulations that raise serious constitutional difficulties, such as exceeding the scope of the power vested in the Federal Government by the Constitution;
  - (ii) regulations that are based on unlawful delegations of legislative power;
  - (iii) regulations that are based on anything other than the best reading of the underlying statutory authority or prohibition;
  - (iv) regulations that implicate matters of social, political, or economic significance that are not authorized by clear statutory authority;
  - (v) regulations that impose significant costs upon private parties that are not outweighed by public benefits;
  - (vi) regulations that harm the national interest by significantly and unjustifiably impeding technological innovation, infrastructure development, disaster response, inflation reduction, research and development, economic development, energy production, land use, and foreign policy objectives; and
  - (vii) regulations that impose undue burdens on small business and impede private enterprise and entrepreneurship.
- (b) In conducting the review required by subsection (a) of this section, agencies shall prioritize review of those rules that satisfy the definition of "significant regulatory action" in Executive Order 12866 of September 30, 1993 (Regulatory Planning and Review), as amended.
- (c) Within 60 days of the date of this order, agency heads shall provide to the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) within the Office of Management and Budget a list of all regulations identified by class as listed in subsection (a) of this section.
- (d) The Administrator of OIRA shall consult with agency heads to develop a Unified Regulatory Agenda that seeks to rescind or modify these regulations, as appropriate.

Sec. 3

Enforcement Discretion to Ensure Lawful Governance.

- (a) Subject to their paramount obligation to discharge their legal obligations, protect public safety, and advance the national interest, agencies shall preserve their limited enforcement resources by generally de-prioritizing actions to enforce regulations that are based on anything other than the best reading of a statute and de-prioritizing actions to enforce regulations that go beyond the powers vested in the Federal Government by the Constitution.
- (b) Agency heads shall determine whether ongoing enforcement of any regulations identified in their regulatory review is compliant with law and Administration policy. To preserve resources and ensure lawful enforcement, agency heads, in consultation with the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, shall, on a case-by-case basis and as appropriate and consistent with applicable law, then direct the termination of all such enforcement proceedings that do not comply with the Constitution, laws, or Administration policy.
