H-1BR, H-1B Registration ▼

Use this form to register a U.S. employer or agent (prospective petitioner) who seeks to obtain H-1B nonimmigrant classification on behalf of an individual subject to the H-1B numerical allocations.

Note: This form may only be filed during a designated registration period.

Import H-1B beneficiary data from a file: Import data for up to 2,500 beneficiaries at a time using our template. We will create draft registrations from the beneficiary data file you imported. View our template to understand what information you will need to provide to import them successfully.

Changes to the H-1B Registration Fee and Payment Processes for Fiscal Year 2026 (FY 2026)

The H-1B registration fee for the upcoming FY 2026 registration period is $215 per beneficiary. You may include up to 250 beneficiaries per H-1B registration submission.

To accommodate filers submitting multiple registrations during the FY2026 H-1B cap season, the U.S. Department of Treasury has temporarily increased the credit card transaction limit from $24,999.99 to $99,999.99 per day. Filers whose total H-1B registration costs exceed the daily limit may elect to pay their fees by using multiple credit cards, each of which is subjected to the $99,999.99 daily limit, or an Automated Clearing House (ACH) bank transfer which is not subject to the daily limit.

H-1B Registration

A U.S. employer or agent (prospective petitioner) who seeks to obtain H-1B nonimmigrant classification on behalf of an individual subject to the H-1B numerical allocations will need to submit a registration during a designated registration period, unless the registration requirement is suspended by USCIS. A petitioner may only submit one registration per beneficiary in any fiscal year. Each registration must identify, among other things, the beneficiary's name and valid passport or travel document information (including passport or travel document number, country of issuance, and expiration date). Each beneficiary may be registered under only one passport or travel document.

On the registration, the registrant must select the highest Occupational Employment and Wage Statistics (OEWS) wage level that the beneficiary's proffered wage equals or exceeds for the relevant Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code in the area(s) of intended employment. If the beneficiary's proffered wage is lower than OEWS wage level I, because it is based on a prevailing wage from another legitimate source (other than OEWS) or an independent authoritative source, the registrant must select "wage level I." If the beneficiary will work in multiple locations, or in multiple positions if the registrant is an agent, the registrant must select the lowest corresponding OEWS wage level that the beneficiary's proffered wage will equal or exceed. If the beneficiary's proffered wage is expressed as a range, you must select the OEWS wage level that the lowest wage in the range will equal or exceed. Where there is no current OEWS prevailing wage information for the beneficiary's proffered position the registrant must select the OEWS wage level that corresponds to the requirements of the beneficiary's proffered position using the Department of Labor's prevailing wage guidance. The registrant must also provide the SOC code of the proffered position, the area of intended employment that served as the basis of the wage level selected on the registration, and all other information as instructed on this form.

Prospective petitioners, or their attorneys or accredited representatives, may submit up to 250 registrations per submission.

The annual initial registration period will last a minimum of 14 calendar days and will start at least 14 calendar days before the earliest date on which H-1B cap-subject petitions may be filed for a particular fiscal year.

If a sufficient number of registrations for unique beneficiaries projected as needed to reach the H-1B regular cap have not been received within the initial registration period, USCIS will notify all registrants who have properly registered that their registrations for unique beneficiaries have been selected. USCIS will keep registration open past the initial registration period until USCIS has determined that it has received enough registrations for unique beneficiaries projected as needed to meet the H-1B regular cap.

After the end of the initial registration period, if USCIS has received more registrations for unique beneficiaries than needed to meet the projected number of registrations to reach the regular cap, we will assign each unique beneficiary to the lowest OEWS wage level among all registrations submitted on the beneficiary's behalf and will enter each unique beneficiary into the selection pool in a weighted manner as follows: a beneficiary assigned wage level IV will be entered into the selection pool four times, a beneficiary assigned wage level III will be entered into the selection pool three times, a beneficiary assigned wage level II will be entered into the selection pool two times, and a beneficiary assigned wage level I will be entered into the selection pool one time. A similar process will apply for those who may be eligible for the advanced degree exemption. Once USCIS selects a registration for a unique beneficiary, all registrations for that beneficiary will be selected and eligible to file a Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, to request classification of the beneficiary as an H-1B worker.

USCIS may deny or revoke the approval of an H-1B petition if it determines that the fee associated with the registration is declined, not reconciled, disputed, or otherwise invalid after submission. The registration fee is non-refundable and due at the time the registration is submitted.

Before you start your registration

Eligibility

A U.S. employer or agent may file H-1B cap petitions, and as such, will be required to submit an H-1B registration to be eligible to file the H-1B cap petition.

- U.S. Employers: Person or entity in the United States that:
- Has a bona fide job offer for the beneficiary to work within the United States;
 - Has a legal presence in the United States and is amenable to service of process in the United States; and
 - Has an Internal Revenue Service (IRS) tax identification number.
- Agents: A U.S. individual or company in business as an agent may file an H-1B registration for workers who are traditionally self-employed or workers who use agents to arrange short-term employment on their behalf with numerous employers, and in cases where a foreign employer authorizes the agent to act on its behalf.

Duplicates

A registrant (prospective petitioner) may only submit one registration per beneficiary in any fiscal year. If a registrant, or their authorized attorney or representative, submits more than one registration per beneficiary in the same fiscal year, all registrations filed by that registrant, or on their behalf by their authorized attorney or representative, related to the beneficiary for the fiscal year will be considered invalid, and USCIS may deny or revoke the approval of any petition filed for the beneficiary based on those registrations.

Fee

We will automatically calculate the cost for you before you submit your registration. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055.

We will send you to Pay.gov, our safe, secure payment website, to make your payment and submit your registration(s) online.

Important Payment Requirements

When paying with check please be sure to enter the bank routing number and bank account number accurately. While the status of the registration(s) in the system will indicate "submitted" following completion of the Pay.gov payment process, your H-1B registration(s) will be invalidated if the payment does not clear.

If payment is completed with a credit card or debit card the status of the registration(s) in the system will indicate "submitted" following completion of the Pay.gov payment process. However, your H-1B registration(s) will be invalidated if the payment does not clear or the payment is later declined or disputed.

Money orders, certified bank checks, and non-reloadable debit cards cannot be used as a form of payment in the Pay.gov system.

If you use a business checking account to make your payment please ensure that your institution does not restrict or block ACH Payments for this service. If your business checking account is restricted your payment will be declined and your registration(s) will be invalidated.

USCIS Refund Policy

USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your submission, application, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision.

By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

DHS Privacy Notice

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this form is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act sections 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) and 214(a), (c)(1), (g); 8 U.S. Code 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) and 1184(a), (c)(1), and (g); and the regulatory authority under 8 Code of Federal Regulations 214.2(h).

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this form is to register prospective beneficiaries for the annual H-1B cap selection process. DHS uses the provided information to select a projected number of registrations needed to generate a sufficient number of H-1B cap petitions to reach the annual H-1B numerical limitations, including the advanced degree exemption, and associate selected registrations with subsequently filed H-1B cap petitions. Unless the registration requirement is suspended, a prospective petitioner must have a selected registration to be eligible to file an H-1B cap petition for the named beneficiary.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information may preclude you from filing an H-1B cap petition on the named beneficiary’s behalf.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this form and any additional requested evidence with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS-USCIS-007 Benefits Information System] and the published privacy impact assessments [DHS/USCIS/PIA-034(a) H-1B Registration Final Rule] which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share this information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Beneficiary Information *

Prospective petitioners, or their attorneys or accredited representatives, may submit up to 250 registrations per submission.

What is the beneficiary's legal name?

Given name (first name) *

☐ Beneficiary does not have a first name.

Middle name (if applicable) *

☐ Beneficiary does not have a middle name.

Family name (last name) *

☐ Beneficiary does not have a last name.

What is the beneficiary's sex?

☐ Male

☐ Female

What is the beneficiary's date of birth?

MM/DD/YYYY

Are you requesting consideration under the INA 214(g)(5)(C) advanced degree exemption because the beneficiary has earned, or will earn prior to the filing of the petition, a master's or higher degree from a U.S. institution of higher education?

☐ Yes

☐ No

What is the beneficiary's country of birth?

What is the beneficiary's country of citizenship?

What is the beneficiary's passport or travel document number?

You must provide the beneficiary's passport or travel document number. The passport or travel document must be valid and, if or when the beneficiary is abroad, must correspond to the passport or travel document the beneficiary intends to use to enter the United States. You should retain a copy of the beneficiary's passport or travel document, as evidence of the passport or travel document will be required if the registration is selected and a petition is filed. Each beneficiary must only be registered under one valid passport or travel document.

What is the passport or travel document country of issuance?

When does their passport or travel document expire?

In rare instances, the passport or travel document may be past the expiration date listed on the document (that is, facially expired) but may have had its validity extended by decree or automatically by the national government or issuing authority that issued the passport or travel document. In these unusual circumstances, USCIS will consider those documents to be valid since they were extended by decree or automatically. Registrants should enter the expiration date of the passport or travel document based on the extension, rather than the date which appears in the passport itself. If an H-1B petition is filed based on such registration, USCIS will review the copy of the facially expired document along with any relevant information about the extension to ensure the information entered at registration was accurate.

Note: The passport or travel document MUST be unexpired. The expiration date must be today's date or later.

MM/DD/YYYY

❗ Provide a valid date.

i When applicable, USCIS will select unique beneficiaries in a weighted manner based on the Occupational Employment and Wage Survey (OEWS) wage level that the beneficiary's proffered wage equals or exceeds for the relevant Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code in their area(s) of intended employment. The proffered wage is the wage that the employer intends to pay the beneficiary. The SOC code and area(s) of intended employment will be indicated on the LCA filed with the petition.

As of the date of submission of this registration, what is the highest Occupational Employment and Wage Statistics (OEWS) wage level that the beneficiary's proffered wage equals or exceeds for the relevant Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code in the area(s) of intended employment? *

If the beneficiary's proffered wage is lower than OEWS wage level I, because it is based on a prevailing wage from another legitimate source (other than OEWS) or an independent authoritative source, you must select "wage level I."

If the beneficiary will work in multiple locations, or in multiple positions if you are filing the registration as an agent, you must select the lowest corresponding OEWS wage level that the proffered wage will equal or exceed.

If the proffered wage is expressed as a range, you must select the OEWS wage level that the lowest wage in the range will equal or exceed.

If the relevant SOC code does not have current OEWS prevailing wage information available, you must follow U.S. Department of Labor guidance on prevailing wage determinations to determine which OEWS wage level to select.

☐ Wage Level IV

☐ Wage Level III

☐ Wage Level II

☐ Wage Level I

What is the Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code for the beneficiary's proffered position? *

The OEWS program uses the Office of Management and Budget's Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) system to classify jobs into occupations based on their job duties.

What is the area of intended employment for the beneficiary's proffered position? *

The area of intended employment is the area within normal commuting distance of the place (address) of intended employment. If the beneficiary will be employed in multiple locations, the registrant must indicate the area of intended employment that served as the basis of the wage level selected above.

Check your registration(s) for duplicates. This process is optional.

A registrant (prospective petitioner), or their authorized attorney or representative, may only submit one registration per beneficiary in any fiscal year. If a registrant, or their authorized attorney or representative, submits more than one registration per beneficiary in the same fiscal year, all registrations submitted by that registrant, or on their behalf by their authorized attorney or representative, related to the beneficiary for the fiscal year will be considered invalid, and USCIS may deny or revoke the approval of any petition filed for the beneficiary based on those registrations. Before you submit your registration(s), you can check if the registrant named in this submission previously submitted a registration for any of the beneficiaries included in this submission for the same fiscal year.

To check your registration(s) for duplicates, you must:

1. Provide your Employer Identification Number (EIN) on the "About Registrant" page and add at least one beneficiary on the "About Beneficiary" page.
2. Select the “Check for duplicates” button to perform the check. A duplicate will be found if you or another person already submitted a registration for the beneficiary on behalf of your organization for the same fiscal year.
3. Once the check is complete, review the list of beneficiaries who have duplicates on the previous page. We recommend staying on this page until the check is complete.
4. If you add beneficiaries after performing this check, you can perform the check again.

Note: Using this check does not guarantee that duplicates will not be identified by USCIS at a later date. This check will compare the beneficiaries listed in this draft with any registrations previously submitted during this registration period. It will not check for duplicates within this draft or between drafts. You can review the list of beneficiaries you included on the previous page (or on the spreadsheet on your account homepage) to make sure you have not entered a beneficiary more than once. Check your registration(s) before you submit Check your registration(s) before you submit. It is important to ensure that all of the beneficiary's biographic and passport or travel document information is entered correctly. If USCIS later determines that multiple registrations were submitted for the same beneficiary by the same or different registrants, but using different identifying information, USCIS may find all of those registrations invalid and deny or revoke the approval of any H-1B petition filed based on those registrations.

We encourage you to provide as many responses as you can throughout the registration(s) to the best of your knowledge. The system will identify missing information, but will not verify the accuracy and completeness of the information.

You can return to this page to review your registration(s) as many times as you want before you submit it/them.

Pay and Submit

You must complete all fields with an asterisk (*) to submit this form.

Have your payment information ready

Ensure you have all payment information ready before proceeding. When you click “Pay and submit,” you will be navigated to pay.gov. Once your payment is complete, you will be navitgated back to myUSCIS.

- Do not save the pay.gov link - it is unique to this submission and cannot be used again.
- Do not refresh the pay.gov page as this may cause issues with processing your payment.
- You will not be able to cancel your payment once it has been processed.

Changes to the H-1B Registration Fee and Payment Processes for Fiscal Year 2026 (FY 2026)

The H-1B registration fee for the upcoming FY 2026 registration period is $215 per beneficiary. You may include up to 250 beneficiaries per H-1B registration submission.

To accommodate filers submitting multiple registrations during the FY2026 H-1B cap season, the U.S. Department of Treasury has temporarily increased the credit card transaction limit from $24,999.99 to $99,999.99 per day. Filers whose total H-1B registration costs exceed the daily limit may elect to pay their fees by using multiple credit cards, each of which is subjected to the $99,999.99 daily limit, or an Automated Clearing House (ACH) bank transfer which is not subject to the daily limit.

For specific information about the new fees, visit the FY 2026 H-1B Cap Initial Registration Period page.

Pay for and submit your registration(s)

The final step to submit your H-1B registration(s) is to pay the required fee.

Your petition fee is: ${xxx}

Refund policy: By continuing this transaction, you agree that you are paying for a government service and that the filing fee, biometric services fee and all related financial transactions are final and not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on an petition, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

We will send you to Pay.gov — our safe, secure payment website — to make your payment and submit your registration(s) online.

Here are the steps in the payment and submission process:

1. Provide your billing information on Pay.gov
2. Provide your credit card or U.S. bank account information
3. Submit your payment

When you have paid your fee, your registration(s) will be submitted.

Pay.gov will redirect you to a uscis.gov confirmation screen. You can track the status of your registration(s) through your USCIS online account.
