2024 vs 2025 AIES	Comments
Remove from collection.	Through discussions with stakeholders, these items are no longer needed.
Remove from collection.	Experience has shown that this question is not broadly applicable across companies and adds little to the analysis.
Remove from collection.	This topic is already covered by the Business Enterprise Research and Development Survey (BERD).
Remove from collection.	These questions are not contributing to current or anticipated data uses for internal analyses or external products.
Add to collection for SY25, recurring every 5 years.	These breakouts are essential to our data users and stakeholders.
Remove from collection.	Revenue detail questions are being removed because they duplicate content that will be captured through NAPCS and could result in slivers.

Product data was already being collected from establishments in the Manufacturing trade. This is now being expanded to all in-scope trades for AIES, allowing the reduction of other revenue items.	NAPCS will be expanded to industry-level collection for all in-scope industries outside Manufacturing; Manufacturing will continue reporting at the establishment level. To reduce burden, the top five NAPCS per industry (based on historical data) will be prelisted in the survey instrument, with two write-in fields for additional products.
