SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—The antidumping petition concerning fresh tomatoes from Mexico was deemed by the Commission and Department of Commerce (Commerce) to be filed on April 1, 1996 by the Florida Tomato Growers Exchange, the Florida Tomato Exchange, the Tomato Committee of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, the South Carolina Tomato Association, the Gadsden County Tomato Growers Association, and an Ad Hoc Group of Florida, California, Georgia, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, and Virginia Tomato Growers (61 FR 18377, April 25, 1996). On May 16, 1996, the Commission notified Commerce that it reached an affirmative preliminary determination in its antidumping duty investigation (61 FR 28890, June 6, 1996). On October 28, 1996, Commerce signed a suspension agreement with certain growers/exporters of fresh tomatoes from Mexico that accounted for substantially all imports of fresh tomatoes from Mexico, in which “each signatory producer/exporter . . . agreed to revise its prices to eliminate completely the injurious effects of exports” of fresh tomatoes to the United States (61 FR 56618, November 1, 1996). Effective November 1, 1996, the Commerce suspended its antidumping duty investigation on imports of fresh tomatoes from Mexico (61 FR 56618, November 1, 1996). Effective the same day, the Commission suspended the final phase of its investigation (61 FR 58217, November 13, 1996).

On October 1, 2001, Commerce initiated and the Commission instituted their first five-year reviews of the suspended investigations (66 FR 49926, 49975). After the withdrawal from the suspension agreement by certain Mexican tomato growers, Commerce terminated the suspension agreement (67 FR 50858, August 6, 2002), and both Commerce and the Commission terminated their first five-year reviews and resumed their antidumping investigations, effective July 30, 2002

(67 FR 53361, August 15, 2002; 67 FR 56854, September 5, 2002). On December 16, 2002, Commerce and the Commission suspended their resumed investigations when Commerce signed a new suspension agreement with certain growers/exporters of fresh tomatoes from Mexico (67 FR 77044, December 16, 2002; 67 FR 78815, December 26, 2002). On November 1, 2007, Commerce initiated and the Commission instituted their second five-year reviews of the suspended investigations (72 FR 61861, 61903, November 1, 2007). Once again, based on the withdrawal from the suspension agreement by certain Mexican tomato growers, Commerce terminated the suspension agreement (73 FR 2887, January 16, 2008), and both Commerce and the Commission terminated their second five-year reviews and resumed their antidumping investigations, effective January 18, 2008 (73 FR 2888, January 18, 2008; 73 FR 5869, January 31, 2008). The resumed antidumping investigations were again suspended by Commerce and the Commission when Commerce signed a new suspension agreement with certain growers/exporters of fresh tomatoes from Mexico, effective January 22, 2008 (73 FR 4831, January 28, 2008; 73 FR 7762, February 11, 2008). On December 1, 2012, Commerce initiated its third five-year review of the suspended investigation (77 FR 71684, December 3, 2012), and on December 3, 2012, the Commission instituted its third five-year review of the suspended investigation (77 FR 71629, December 3, 2012). Based on the withdrawal from the suspension agreement by certain Mexican tomato growers/exporters, Commerce terminated the suspension agreement and its third five-year review of the suspended investigation, and resumed its investigation, effective March 1, 2013 (78 FR 14771, March 7, 2013). On March 4, 2013, the Commission terminated its review of the suspended investigation and resumed the final phase of its investigation (78 FR 16529, March 15, 2013). Also on March 4, 2013, Commerce signed a new agreement with certain growers/exporters of fresh tomatoes from Mexico, and again suspended its resumed investigation (78 FR 14967, March 8, 2013). On March 5, 2013, the Commission suspended its resumed final phase investigation (78 FR 16530, March 15, 2013).

On February 1, 2018, Commerce initiated and the Commission instituted their fourth five-year reviews of the suspended investigations (83 FR 4641, 4676, February 1, 2018). After receipt of a request by the Florida Tomato

<sup>1</sup> Chair Karpel determined that the changed circumstances alleged by Mexican respondent interested parties in their request for a review are not sufficient to warrant institution of a review under section 751(b). Commissioner Kearns determined that the changed circumstances alleged by Mexican respondent interested parties are sufficient to warrant institution of a review under section 751(b). Commissioner Johanson did not participate in this proceeding. As one half of the number of Commissioners voting agree that the review should be initiated, the Commission is instituting that review. See 19 U.S.C. 1330(d)(5).
