Instructions

- a. Prior authorization from ATF to transport interstate or in foreign commerce a destructive device, machine gun, short-barreled rifle, or short-barreled shotgun is required under the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 922 (a)(4) and 27 CFR 478.28. Persons wishing to transport interstate such items for long-term (more than one year) or permanent move, or temporary foreign export, must submit a written request to ATF. You may submit a letter containing all information required on this form in lieu of the form.
- b. The registered owner of NFA firearm(s) must complete ATF Form 5320.20 and submit it to the Director, ATF. You can email the form to NFAFax@atf.gov, or submitted through the ATF eForms system. Or it can be submitted via facsimile to the NFA Division at (304) 616-4501, or mailed to the Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives; 244 Needy Road; Martinsburg, WV 25405 (Attention: NFA Division).
- c. Signatures generated by the ATF eForms system, handwritten ink signatures, and electronic signatures are permissible.
- d. Item 4a should be the prior NFA control number stamped on the approved NFA form from when the firearm was originally registered to the registered owner listed in Item 1.
- e. The ATF Form 5320.20 will be returned to the registered owner by email, available for download on eForms, or sent by mail. Approval authorizes the registered owner to transport the designated firearm(s) only during the time period specified in Item 3. THE AUTHORIZATION DOES NOT CARRY OR GRANT IMPORT RELIEF FROM ANY STATUTORY OR REGULATORY PROVISIONS RELATING TO FIREARMS OTHER THAN 27 CFR 478.28.
- f. In the event Item 2 is checked “yes” and the firearm(s) is not returned to the original location by the date specified, the registered owner must submit a new application on ATF Form 5320.20 to receive approval to return the firearm(s).
- g. If a contract or common carrier is used to transport the firearm(s), a copy of ATF Form 5320.20 must be furnished to the carrier and must be in the carrier's possession for the duration of the transportation. This will meet the requirements of sections 922(e) and (f) of the Gun Control Act of 1968.
- h. The continuation sheet can be used to list additional firearms in excess of the six listed on page 1 of the ATF Form 5320.20.

Privacy Act Statement

This information is provided pursuant to sections 3 and 7(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a(e)(3)):

1. Authority: The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) is authorized to solicit this information under 18 U.S.C. § 922(a)(4) of the Gun Control Act of 1968 and 26 U.S.C. § 6103. ATF is authorized to collect this information to evaluate requests to transport certain National Firearms Act (NFA) firearms or devices across state lines or to export them temporarily. ATF's implementing regulations are at 27 CFR 478.28.
2. Purpose: ATF uses the information collected on ATF Form 5320.20, Application to Transport Interstate or to Temporarily Export Certain NFA Firearms, to determine whether transporting or exporting the proposed NFA-regulated firearm or device is consistent with federal, state, and local law. This information also enables ATF to monitor compliance with statutory transport restrictions and to assist in public safety and regulatory oversight.
3. Routine uses: ATF may disclose the information as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a) and in accordance with System of Records Notice (SORN) JUSTICE/ATF-008 – Regulatory Enforcement Record System. It may be shared with federal, state, local, tribal, and foreign law enforcement, or regulatory agencies, to verify eligibility, support lawful enforcement and compliance activities, or for administrative or judicial proceedings. Information classified as tax return information is protected from unauthorized disclosure under 26 U.S.C. § 6103.
4. Disclosure: Providing this information is mandatory under 18 U.S.C. § 922(a)(4) if a person wishes to transport or export an NFA firearm or device. Failing to provide complete and accurate information may delay processing your request or result in ATF denying your application to transport or export the firearm or device.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

This form is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The requested information is used to determine the applicant's eligibility to temporarily transport or export firearm(s) listed on this application. Collected data is also used to compile statistics on the manufacture and exportation of firearms. The furnishing of this information is mandatory (18 U.S.C. § 921(g)).

The estimated average burden associated with this collection of information is ten minutes per respondent or record-keeper, depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be addressed to Reports Management Officer, Resource Management Staff, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives 99 New York Ave, NE, Washington, DC 20226.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, an information collection unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget control number.
