Terms and Conditions for Requesting a Speaker from the NCUA

1. Submission of this Speaker Request Form is a request only, and does not imply consent to participate by the National Credit Union Administration. The NCUA will consider each request to determine speaker availability and whether participation is in compliance with the laws, rules, regulations and guidelines governing activities of a federal agency and its employees. If the NCUA agrees to participate in the event, confirmation of its participation will be communicated in writing to the contacts provided.
2. The NCUA must review and approve in advance any public announcement, news release, invitation, promotional material or other information to be released regarding an appearance by its employees at the event. The Requester may not use the name of the NCUA in any way that constitutes or implies endorsement of the Requester, the Requester's Organization, the event, or any participant or topic connected to the event, by the NCUA or its employees.
3. All press participation must be approved at least two weeks prior to the event by the NCUA. If you indicate in the Speaker Request Form that the event is not open to the press and subsequently open the event to the press, the NCUA reserves the right to cancel its participation in the event.
4. The Requester will inform the NCUA if it intends to record or broadcast NCUA employees, or reproduce or distribute any presentations or program material used by NCUA employees in connection with a speech or public appearance.
5. The Requester agrees to cooperate with the NCUA with regard to security arrangements at the event that may be required by the agency.
6. Employees of the NCUA may not accept compensation (including a gift or honorarium) or reimbursement for travel or lodging expenses in connection with this event.
7. The Requester understands and agrees that any material change to the information provided on the Speaker Request Form or any failure to comply with these Terms and Conditions may result in the cancellation of participation in the event by the NCUA and its employees. The NCUA reserves the right to cancel its participation in the event.

I agree to the Terms and Conditions specified above for Requesting a Speaker from NCUA
