Congratulations [Name],

The Marine Corps Marathon Organization (MCMO) congratulates you for successfully charging the capital, beating the bridge and accomplishing your mission at the U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial!

The official finisher certificate with your unofficial results is now available to be printed or shared. Look for another email soon from MarathonFoto, the MCMO event photography partner, with a direct link to images of your run that will be available for purchase. Also, be sure to tag your photos with #RunWithTheMarines to share with others from our running community!

MCMO strives to improve MCM Weekend each year and we want to hear from you. Please take some time to fill out our survey. It will only take a few minutes.

Celebrate your MCM finish with Recover limited-edition gear. The full collection is available at Recover' online store. Shop now!

Personalize your finisher medal with iTAB! Fixes neatly on to the ribbon of the medal with a special buckle attachment. It is neat, visible from the front of the medal and helps runners remember a #RunWithTheMarines for years to come. Purchase here.

The full 2026 Race Calendar including information on the Marine Corps Historic Half and the 51st Marine Corps Marathon are on our website.

Information for all events can be found at www.marinemarathon.com.

Bravo Zulu,

Marine Corps Marathon Organization
