

Paperwork Reduction Act Burden Disclosure Statement

The primary objective of this data collection is to solicit feedback and assess the comprehension levels of attendees regarding the training session's subject matter. The insights derived from your contributions will be instrumental in identifying areas where further training reinforcement is necessary and in refining the content for subsequent training programs. The data will be collected through Mentimeter, which is an online tool that is free for users and easy to use. This tool is also interactive, which is one of the goals of the training team to spark discussion and engagement with the content presented in the training.

The burden of public reporting for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 minute per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Office of the Chief Information Officer, Enterprise Policy Development & Implementation Office, IM-22, Information Collection Management Program (1910-5160), U.S. Department of Energy, 1000 Independence Ave SW, Washington, DC 20585; and to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), OIRA, Paperwork Reduction Project (1910-5160), Washington, DC 20503.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall anyone be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Submission of this data is voluntary.

1) How confident do you feel that you can tell when Hollywood is exaggerating cyber threats?

Very confident. I could write for Hollywood	Somewhat Confident. They might be able to get one past me sometimes	Not very confident. It's tough to see through the razzle dazzle	Not at all confident. You mean Hollywood cyber shows aren't realistic?
