

USDA-FOREST SERVICE
LAW ENFORCEMENT AND INVESTIGATIONS
RIDE-ALONG PROGRAM
INFORMATION STATEMENT AND APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in the USDA Forest Service Law Enforcement and Investigations (LEI) Ride-Along Program. The following guidelines have been established for this program.

You will not be allowed to participate if (1) you are under 16 years of age, (2) you have been convicted of a felony or offenses involving illegal drugs or violence, (3) you are the subject of a current restraining order or warrant, or (4) you are under investigation, in custody, or under indictment for a criminal offense by any agency. You will be asked for information protected by the Privacy Act that is necessary to verify with the FBI and State law enforcement databases that none of the above applies to you. Providing this information is voluntary, but should you choose not to provide this information, you may be denied participation in this program. It is necessary to verify this information in order to protect the safety of our officers and the integrity of the LEI Ride-Along program.

You are requested to be attired in a manner that will in no way reflect negatively upon you, the program, or the USDA-Forest Service. For your safety and convenience, you will need to wear clothing and footwear that are suitable for outdoor conditions. The following are examples of types of clothing that are not acceptable: hot pants, shorts, tennis shoes, sandals, cropped tops, and T-shirts. You will arrange your own transportation to and from the Forest Service facility where the accompanying officer/agent is headquartered.

You are encouraged to ask questions about LEI programs. However, do not in any way interfere with the officer/agent's handling of a situation. You may ask questions about a specific assignment after it has been completed and you have left the scene. You may observe an event on your ride that could require you to appear in court as a witness. You must use the safety belts and other safety equipment in the law enforcement vehicle. Certain calls are inherently dangerous. Your officer/agent may respond to such a call after dropping you off at a safe location.

An assumption of risk, waiver of liability, and indemnity form is attached and must be executed by you and by one of your parents or your legal guardian if you are under the age of 21 prior to the ride-along. In signing this form, you are agreeing to assume all risk of death, personal injury, and property damage, to waive all claims against the United States for negligence, and to pay the cost of defending the United States in any lawsuit and to pay any damages incurred by the United States in any lawsuit, other than those caused by the negligence of the United States, arising in connection with your participation in the LEI Ride-Along Program.
