Goods or services for opposition

For each class, you must indicate whether you oppose all, some, or none of the goods or services. If you oppose some goods or services, use the strikethrough option in the text box to strike the goods or services you don't want to oppose. For example, if you don't want to oppose hats in the following example, the text would look like this: apparel, athletic uniform; dress shirts, knee-jackets.

Identifying the opposer

If you aren't using an extension:

1. Select Add opposer information
2. Indicate whether the opposer is a company or an individual
3. Provide the necessary information regarding the opposer.

If instructed to use one or more approved extensions, TTAB Center will identify the potential opposer who filed the extension in the Opposer information table. To add additional opposers, select "Add opposer" if shown. If the option to "Add opposer" is not shown, TTAB Center has determined that the period for opposing an application without an extension has passed.

If no opposer is displayed below, please select "Add opposer information" and then provide the requested information about the opposer. If an opposer is displayed, please select one or more of the identified opposers.

To remove an opposer from the list displayed below, please return to the prior application data page and deselect the extension request associated with the opposer.
