

Document ID	Agency ID	Docket ID	Posted Date	Title
USCIS-2006-0059-0164	USCIS	USCIS-2006-0059	1/14/2026	Comment Submitted by jean publie

USCIS-2006-0059-0165	USCIS	USCIS-2006-0059	2/11/2026	Comment Submitted by WhoPoo App
----------------------	-------	-----------------	-----------	---------------------------------------

USCIS-2006-0059-0166	USCIS	USCIS-2006-0059	2/13/2026	Comment Submitted by Anonymous
----------------------	-------	-----------------	-----------	--------------------------------------

Comment ID
-------------------

USCIS-2006-0059-0156
----------------------

USCIS-2006-0059-0156

USCIS-2006-0059-0156

Comment

USA needs to stop all immigration into this country. I do not approve of citizens being taxed to pay for this cover the harm they do here. the American people have been robbed for the last 5 0 years for these robbi

What are you doing to investigate fraud in U visa holders? In July 2025, Five Louisiana men, including four conspiracy to commit visa fraud, and mail fraud, following a federal investigation initiated by U.S. Citizens inconsistencies among U visa applications, spurring a multi-agency federal investigation.

The 62-count indictment describes the defendants' and others' more than nine-and-a-half-year alleged armed robberies in the central Louisiana area. The indictment alleges the defendants produced false police visas.

The defendants include:

Chandrakant Patel, a/k/a "Lala," of Oakdale

Chad Doyle, chief of police for the City of Oakdale

Michael Slaney, a/k/a "Freck," marshal of the Ward 5 Marshal's Office in Oakdale

Glynn Dixon, chief of police for the City of Forest Hill

Tebo Onishea, former chief of police for the City of Glenmora

Patel, Doyle, Slaney, Dixon, and Onishea conspired together to commit visa fraud, namely a nonimmigrant visa otherwise procured by fraud and unlawfully obtained by the defendants. The U visa was introduced by the was meant to help crime victims"such as those affected by domestic violence, sexual assault, or trafficking

To be eligible, applicants must:

Be victims of qualifying criminal activity

Have suffered physical or mental abuse

Possess information about the crime

Be helpful to law enforcement

Have been involved in crimes that occurred in the US or violated US laws

Be otherwise admissible under immigration law (or apply for a waiver)

Crimes that qualify include:

Domestic violence, sexual assault, rape, stalking, and trafficking

Felonious assault, extortion, abduction, and involuntary servitude

Perjury, witness tampering, and obstruction of justice

Attempts or conspiracies linked to these offences . Please remove the "mental abuse" qualifier as it is very certificate of helpfulness signed by a law enforcement agency. Certifying bodies include police departments proven themselves to be biased against ICE so this requirement should also be reviewed to be required by apply for permanent residency after three years of continuous physical presence in the US. They must submit cooperation with law enforcement. When cases drag on for years, the 3 year requirement is too generous programme has drawn criticism for delays and abuse. In a 2022 report, the Department of Homeland Security helpful in solving crimes. More than half the surveyed law enforcement agencies said they believed the pro

A 2023 case exposed a multi-state network staging fake robberies for visa benefits. In 2024, one such stag

While the U visa was meant as protection for those in genuine need, recent investigations suggest it's

It would be both beneficial to the US Government and to individuals holding I-913 T Nonimmigrant Visas t
With case backlogs, both at state and federal government levels, obtaining assistance needed to transition currently transitioning to another immigration status (an adjustment of status to something else, had and backlog to be able to receive that statement and remove their case from consideration. This would be a p