

FNS received one relevant public comment during the 60-day notice period. The comment acknowledged the significance of collecting the information and suggested simplifying the forms or automating collection systems to make the process more efficient. FNS appreciates all public comments and has taken the comments into consideration in the information collection request submitted to OMB.