

I do not want federal contractors or subcontractors discriminating against employees and applicants because of their disability status.