Hi,

I would like to make a comment on:

Federal Communications Commission

1. [OMB 3060-0298; FR ID 342115]

People should be able to buy phones and not give ID to get a phone number. This is all going too far taking away people's privacy and freedoms.

You can track most phones anyway even when they are turned off which is already an invasion into those liberties. I am not a crook but I am a believer in freedoms.

Sincerely,

Ann Cogle
