I-129, Petition For A Nonimmigrant Worker			This form is used by an employer or agent to petition U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for a beneficiary to come temporarily to the United States as a nonimmigrant to perform services or labor, or to receive training. Generally, a Form I-129 petition may not be filed more than 6 months prior to the date employment is scheduled to begin. Form I-129 includes the: • Basic petition; • Individual supplements relating to specific classifications; and • H-1B Data Collection and Filing Fee Exemption Supplement (required for H-1B and H-1B1 classifications only). Note: You may apply online if the requested eligibility classification is: • H-1B - Specialty occupation workers; • H-1B1 - Specialty occupation workers from Chile and Singapore; • H-1B2 - A beneficiary performing exceptional services relating to a cooperative research and development project administered by the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) ; or • H-1B3 - Fashion models of distinguished merit and ability. All other classifications must be filed using a paper Form I-129.		[External link] https://www.uscis.gov/i-129 [External link] https://www.uscis.gov/g-1055
	Before You Start Your Petition	Eligibility	Who May File Form I-129? General: A U.S. employer may file this form and applicable supplements to classify a beneficiary in any nonimmigrant classification listed in the About You section or the Reason for Request section of these instructions. A foreign employer, U.S. agent, or association of U.S. agricultural employers may file for certain classifications as indicated in the specific instructions. Agents: A U.S. individual or company in business as an agent may file a petition for workers who are traditionally self-employed or workers who use agents to arrange short-term employment on their behalf with numerous employers, and in cases where a foreign employer authorizes the agent to act on its behalf. A petition filed by an agent must include a complete itinerary of services or engagements, including dates, names, and addresses of the actual employers, and the locations where the services will be performed. A petition filed by a U.S. agent must guarantee the wages and other terms and conditions of employment by contractual agreement with the beneficiary or beneficiaries of the petition. The agent/employer must also provide an itinerary of definite employment and information on any other services planned for the period of time requested. The itinerary requirement does not apply to any H classifications. Naming beneficiaries: All beneficiaries in a petition must be named. Note: You can file Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service, if you are filing a Form I-129 for a nonimmigrant classification that is eligible for premium processing. If you request premium processing, we will present the Form I-907 for you to complete after you sign the Form I-129. This will allow you to pay for and submit both forms at the same time.
		Classification supplements	H Classification Supplement [accordion] This is used to: • Determine which H Classification is sought by the petitioner for the beneficiary; • Collect information related to the beneficiary's qualifications; and • Collect information related to the beneficiary's proposed employment. Who is required to submit this supplement? A U.S. employer or U.S. agent seeking to sponsor a nonimmigrant worker in any H-1B classification.
			Trade Agreement Supplement [accordion] This is used to: • Collect details about the proposed employment; • Collect details about beneficiary's eligibility; and • Collect employer's attestation to comply with terms and conditions of the classification. Who is required to submit this supplement? A U.S. employer or U.S. agent seeking to sponsor a nonimmigrant worker based on a Free Trade Agreement between the United States and the beneficiary's country of citizenship.
			H-1B and H-1B1 Data Collection and Filing Fee Exemption Supplement [accordion] This is used to: • Collect additional information about the H-1B employer and beneficiary; • Determine the appropriate fees for the petition; and • Determine whether the beneficiary is subject to the H-1B numerical limitation (also known as the H-1B cap). Who is required to submit this supplement? A U.S. employer or U.S. agent seeking to classify a beneficiary as an H-1B or H-1B1 Free Trade Nonimmigrant worker must file this with the Form I-129 and the appropriate fee.
		Fee	We will automatically calculate the cost for you before you submit your petition. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055. There is an additional fee for Premium Processing Service. Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.
		Documents you may need	We will automatically determine which documents you should provide us as you fill out your petition. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed.
		Biometric services appointment	Biometrics services appointment for certain beneficiaries who will be working in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) After receiving your petition and ensuring completeness, USCIS will inform you in writing when the beneficiary needs to go to their local USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) for their biometrics services appointment. Failure to attend the biometrics services appointment may result in denial of your petition.
	After You Submit Your Petition	Track your case online	After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.
		Respond to requests for information	If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.
Completing Your Petition Online		Provide your biometrics	We will contact the beneficiary to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near them, if applicable. At the appointment, we will get their fingerprints, photograph, and signature.
		Receive your decision	The decision on Form I-129 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking. USCIS will notify you of the decision in writing.				Next
		Filing online	Submitting your form online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information.
		Complete the Getting Started section first	You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.
