What is the child's A-Number?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use an A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one to you.

I do not have or know the A-Number.

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

What is the child's U.S. Social Security number (SSN)?

I do not have or know the U.S. Social Security number.

Provide a 9-digit Social Security number.

What is the child's sex?

Indicate whether this individual is male or female as provided on their birth certificate issued at the time of birth or issued closest to the time of birth or in secondary evidence provided to USCIS, if applicable.

- Male
- Female

What is the child's A-Number?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use an A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one to you.

I do not have or know the A-Number.

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

What is the child's U.S. Social Security number (SSN)?

I do not have or know the U.S. Social Security number.

Provide a 9-digit Social Security number.

What is the child's passport, travel document, or National ID number used at last arrival?

What is the country that issued the child's passport, travel document, or National ID number?

Verify sufficient source of funds

The funds outlined in this section must be sufficient to transmit the unrestricted requisite gift amount in U.S. currency to the Department of Commerce, in addition to $1 million per person for the accompanying spouse and children listed in this petition, and to have already transmitted the fee of $15,000 per person.

What is the Net Worth of the self-petitioner, or for petitioning corporations, owner's equity (also known as shareholder's equity) as shown on its most recent financial statement?

Provide the self-petitioner's net worth or corporate petitioner's owner's equity (also known as shareholders' equity) as of the date of completing Form I-140G. For a self-petitioner, the net worth represents the difference between your total personal assets and total personal liabilities. For a corporate petitioner, owner's equity is the difference between the entity's total assets and total liabilities, as reflected in the most recent financial statements.

Please identify the source of your funds. Select all that apply.

Evidence must be submitted to verify that each chosen funding source was legally acquired and that each international wire transfer to the Department of Commerce will be conducted in accordance with U.S. law.

You must complete all fields with an asterisk (*) to submit this form.

Are you a corporate petitioner that is intending to rely on the original gift submitted for a previous petition in which the Gold Card Immigrant and accompanying spouse and children have abandoned their lawful permanent resident status?

The Gold Card program established by Executive Order 14351, The Gold Card (Sep. 19, 2025), authorizes a corporate Gold Card holder to abandon his or her status and for the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Homeland Security to consider the original $2 million gift amount as evidence of eligibility for a different principal beneficiary. The corporate petitioner must be the same corporate sponsor as the original, approved petition.

The corporate Gold Card is eligible for transfer to an unlimited number of principal beneficiaries and derivative beneficiaries, if any, provided that the current principal beneficiary and all derivative beneficiaries have voluntarily relinquished their rights to the Gold Card Program, including the associated Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR) status.

If a corporate beneficiary intends to petition to transfer the corporate Gold Card status to a subsequent principal beneficiary accompanied by a spouse and/or children where:

1. The prior principal beneficiary did not have a spouse and/or children and no $1 million gift(s) were submitted by the corporate petitioner; or
2. The total number of new derivative beneficiaries exceeds the number of $1 million gift(s) previously submitted, the corporate petitioner will need to submit a $1 million gift per person to cover any derivative beneficiaries not previously accounted for. In the alternative, if the total number of derivative beneficiaries is below the number for which the corporate petitioner previously submitted $1 million gift(s), such gift(s) will remain associated with the corporate petitioner and will be credited to any future derivative transfers, if applicable.

Note: Evidence must be submitted to demonstrate voluntary abandonment of each beneficiary's (principal and any accompanying spouse and children) lawful permanent resident status and return of every USCIS Gold Card before USCIS can determine eligibility for the corporate Gold Card Transferee.

Yes

No

What is the USCIS Receipt Number of the previous Form I-140G petition?

Enter the receipt number provided on the Account Access Notice for the Gold Card filing for this beneficiary.

Provide a 13-character receipt number, beginning with 3 capitalized letters followed by 10 digits.

What is the A-Number of the previous principal beneficiary?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use an A-Number to identify immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards the corporate petitioner's authorized official has received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card).

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

What is the date that the previous principal beneficiary abandoned U.S. lawful permanent resident status he or she obtained through the Gold Card Program?

MM/DD/YYYY

What is the A-Number of the accompanying spouse?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one to you.

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

What is the A-Number of the accompanying child?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use an A-Number to identify immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards the corporate petitioner's authorized official has received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card).

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.
