Disclaimer Statement

This App has been authorized by the Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to facilitate processing by CBP of travelers intending to enter the United States. The information you provide through this App will be transmitted to CBP for official use and retention consistent with applicable U.S. laws and policies. The use of this App is voluntary; if you do not wish to use this App, please proceed directly to CBP primary examination. Regardless of whether you choose to use this App, as a traveler seeking to enter the United States, you are subject to examination and inspection by CBP.

Please be aware that this App will interact with certain other applications on your device, including your camera, in order to effectively provide information to CBP. All information provided through the App must be true and correct. Information provided to CBP through the App is considered a written statement, and may subject the user to sanctions, including criminal penalties, if the user knowingly and willfully makes a materially false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or representation. For information about the CBP Privacy Policy and the Privacy Act of 1974, visit www.cbp.gov.

Mobile Passport Control (MPC)

Thank you for downloading the Mobile Passport Control (MPC)-enabled mobile application, which has been authorized by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Customs and Border Protection (CBP). You may voluntarily elect to provide your personally identifiable information (PII) in order to streamline your entry into the United States.

In order to enter the United States, you are required to provide travel document data, flight information, photos of you and your traveling family members, and responses to CBP inspection-related questions prior to gaining entry into the United States. Your information will be cross-referenced with data maintained in CBP's other enforcement databases.

Information Collected

CBP collects travel document data, flight information, photos of the traveler and traveling family members, and traveler responses to CBP inspection-related questions from all persons seeking to enter the United States in order to confirm the traveler's identity and citizenship, establish whether the traveler is admissible into the United States, and facilitate CBP' enforcement of U.S. laws. MPC allows you as a traveler to voluntarily store you and your co-traveler's PII (e.g., surname/ last name, given name/first name, date of birth, gender/sex, nationality/citizenship, passport number, passport country issuing authority, and passport date of expiration) securely within your MPC profile on your own device for future travel. CBP does not have access to this stored information. This information may be deleted by you at any time.

In addition, MPC collects your device location data to determine your proximity to a Port of Entry. Based on your device location, the device will automatically select the closest Port of Entry for submission to CBP. MPC does not store or transmit any of this information to CBP. CBP only uses this information to determine the correct Port of Entry. Your specific location information is not collected or maintained by CBP.

Uses of Information

CBP uses your information to streamline your entry into the United States. In order to enter the United States, you are required to provide specified biographical and biometric information, which will be cross-referenced with data maintained in CBP's law enforcement databases.

Section 311 of the Trade Facilitation and Trade Enforcement Act of 2015

The importation of merchandise into the U.S. that infringes intellectual property rights may subject travelers to civil or criminal penalties and may pose serious risks to safety or health.

Uses of Information

CBP uses your information to streamline your entry into the United States. In order to enter the United States, you are required to provide specified biographical and biometric information, which will be cross-referenced with data maintained in CBP's law enforcement databases.

Information Sharing

CBP will share your information within DHS consistent with its legal authorities and within the terms described in following System of Records Notifications (SORNS): Border Crossing Information (BCI) SORN, and the TECS System SORN. Each SORN is accessible via the following website: <https://www.dhs.gov/system-records-notices-sorns>.

The following DHS components have regular access to border crossing information: U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Transportation Security Administration (TSA), the United States Coast Guard, and the DHS Information & Analysis Directorate (I&A). Information may also be shared with federal, state, local, tribal, international, or foreign governments, or law enforcement agencies to support security activities such as intelligence, counterintelligence, antiterrorism, law enforcement, and threats to national and international security. However, information collected solely for the purpose of facilitating an MPC transaction is not authorized to be shared with third parties by the application's owner for any other purpose (e.g., social media, marketing or advertising networks).

Application Security

DHS takes the security of all PII very seriously. We take precautions to maintain the security, confidentiality, and integrity of the information we collect through the MPC-enabled mobile application. Such measures include access controls designed to limit access to the information to the extent necessary to accomplish our mission. We also employ various security technologies to protect the information stored on our systems. We routinely test our security measures to ensure that they remain operational and effective.

The MPC-enabled application transmits your data using secure encryption protocols. Transmission of the information via secure electronic transmission reduces the potential for inadvertent exposure of the information to those without a need to know, such as an unintended or inappropriate disclosure. You have the option of either storing your profile information on your personal device for future travel or deleting the information after a single use.

How to Access or Correct your Information

If you would like to access or correct the information you have provided to this MPC-enabled mobile application, you may contact the DHS Traveler Redress Inquiry Program (TRIP), which is a single point of contact for individuals who wish to correct erroneous data stored in DHS databases. TRIP redress requests may be made online at <https://www.dhs.gov/dhs-trip> or by mail at:

Consequences of Failure to Provide Information:

Using MPC to enter the United States is voluntary. It provides you with an alternative approach to submitting your required entry information to CBP during the border inspection process. If you choose not to submit your information, you will be unable to use the MPC app. You may instead proceed directly to CBP primary examination to initiate the border inspection process.
