Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request; Crisis Counseling Assistance and Training Program

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: 60-Day notice of extension and request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public to take this opportunity to comment on an extension, without change, of a currently approved information collection. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, this notice seeks comments concerning the Crisis Counseling Assistance and Training Program, which provides federal funding in response to a State or Federally recognized Tribe's request for Crisis Counseling services for a presidentially declared major disaster.

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before April 13, 2026.

ADDRESSES: To avoid duplicate submissions to the docket, please submit comments at www.regulations.gov under Docket ID FEMA–2025–0377. Follow the instructions for submitting comments.

All submissions received must include the agency name and Docket ID. Regardless of the method used for submitting comments or material, all submissions will be posted, without change, to the Federal eRulemaking Portal at http://www.regulations.gov, and will include any personal information you provide. Therefore, submitting this information makes it public. You may wish to read the Privacy and Security Notice that is available via a link on the homepage of www.regulations.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 416 of the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, (Pub. L. 93–288, as amended and codified at 42 U.S.C. 5183) (''Act''), authorizes the President to provide professional counseling services, including financial assistance to States (which includes the fifty states, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. territories), Federally recognized Indian Tribal governments, local agencies or private mental health organizations for professional counseling services, to survivors of major disasters to relieve mental health problems caused or aggravated by a major disaster or its aftermath. The implementing regulations for Section 416 of the Stafford Act are at 44 CFR 206.171. Under 44 CFR 206.171 and by agreement, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services-Center for Mental Health Services (HHS–CMHS), which has expertise in crisis counseling, coordinates with FEMA in administering the Crisis Counseling Assistance and Training Program (CCP). FEMA and HHS–CMHS provide program oversight, technical assistance, and training to States and Federally recognized Tribes applying for CCP funding for major disasters. The information submitted in the application is disaster-specific. The information submitted is used in the consideration of the following: funding for community outreach services, public education on behavioral health matters, group and individual crisis counseling, and resource and referral information (including coping techniques).

Collection of Information

Title: Crisis Counseling Assistance and Training Program.

Type of Information Collection: Extension, without change, of a currently approved information collection.

OMB Number: 1660–0085.

FEMA Forms: FEMA Form FF–104–FY–21–148 (formerly 003–0–1), Crisis Counseling Assistance and Training (ISP) Application; FEMA Form FF–104–FY–21–149 (formerly 003–0–2), Crisis Counseling Assistance and Training Program, Regular Services Program (RSP) Application; ISP Final Report Narrative; RSP Quarterly Final RSP Report Narrative. Final RSP Report Narrative.

Abstract: The CCP consists of two grant programs, the ISP and RSP. The ISP and RSP provide supplemental funding to States and Federally recognized Tribes following a Presidentially declared major disaster under the Stafford Act. These grant programs provide funding for training and services, including community outreach, public education, and counseling techniques. States and Federally recognized Tribes are required to submit an application that provides information on Needs Assessment, Plan of Service, Program Management, and an accompanying Budget. The information being collected from both forms will be used to determine if existing resources are adequate to meet the behavioral health needs of disaster survivors and to determine if supplemental funds for crisis counseling services are necessary. Additionally, the information gathered from these forms will help to ensure the program's objectives are met and grants are properly administered in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Affected Public: State, Local or Tribal Government.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: FEMA's Grant Programs Directorate (GPD) awards thousands of grants each year through various grant programs. These programs award funds for projects used to improve homeland security and emergency preparedness. The National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), Public Law 91–190, 42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq., the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (NHPA), Public Law 89–665, 54 U.S.C. 300101 et seq., the Endangered Species Act of 1973, Public Law 93–205, 16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq., and a variety of other environmental and historic preservation laws and Executive Orders (E.O.) require the Federal Government to examine the potential environmental impacts of its proposed actions on communities, public health and safety, and cultural, historic, and natural resources, including endangered and threatened species, prior to implementing those actions. The GPD process of considering these potential impacts is called an environmental and historic preservation (EHP) review which is employed to achieve compliance with multiple EHP authorities through one consolidated process.

Collection of Information

Title: Environmental and Historic Preservation Screening Form.

Type of Information Collection: Extension, without change, of a currently approved information collection.

OMB Number: 1660–0115.

FEMA Forms: FEMA Form FF–119–FY–21–105 (formerly 024–0–1), Environmental and Historic Preservation Screening Form.

Abstract: NEPA requires that each Federal agency examine the impact of a major Federal action (including the actions of recipients using grant funds) significantly affecting the quality of the human environment. This involves considering the environmental impact of the proposed action, alternatives to the proposed action, informing both decision-makers and the public of the impacts through a transparent process, and identifying mitigation measures for any potential adverse impacts. Among other environmental laws, the review also involves considering the effects of the undertaking on historic properties under Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act and the effects of the action on any threatened or endangered species and their habitat under Section 7 of the Endangered Species Act of 1973. This Screening Form will facilitate FEMA's review of recipient Federally-funded actions in
