Please do your best to protect the animals, including the wolves, the ungulates, and the grizzly bears from destruction and harm. Please don't kill them, and not even by euthanasia either. If animals are injured, they should be given the right medical care and pain relief that will help them in their suffering. Please protect the vulnerable animals that live on ranches. Please have these animals be placed in safe, robust shelters, so that they will not be easy targets for predatory animals. Please protect the animals.
