Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-956K
OMB No. 1615-0519
Expires 03/31/2027

What Is the Purpose of Form I-956K?

The Form I-956K, Registration for Direct and Third-Party Promoters, must be completed by each person acting as a direct or third-party promoter (including migration agents) of a regional center, any new commercial enterprise (NCE), an affiliated job-creating entity (JCE), or an issuer of securities intended to be offered to alien investors in connection with a particular capital investment project and is participating in the Regional Center Program. A promoter means a person acting on behalf of the relevant entity, to advertise, publicize, market, endorse, provide testimonials, or solicit indications of interest in connection with a particular capital investment project under the Regional Center Program. A person may be acting on behalf of a regional center, new commercial enterprise, or affiliated job-creating entity as a promoter through contract, sub-contract, or by virtue of employment or other type of agency relationship with such entities or another promoter. This includes subagents or employees of entities with agreements in place to promote a regional center, any new commercial enterprise, an affiliated job-creating entity, or an issuer of securities intended to be offered to alien investors that are promoting the regional center, new commercial enterprise, affiliated job-creating entity, or issuer of securities to alien investors.

Regional centers, new commercial enterprises and job-creating entities do not need to separately file a Form I-956K if they are involved solely in the promotion of any offering of securities associated with such entities in a related filing such as Form I-956F.

Each person completing a Form I-956K must answer all questions as indicated on the form.

When Must the Form I-956K Be Filed?

A promoter should submit Form I-956K before operating on behalf of any of the specified entities or promoting any offering under the EB-5 Regional Center Program. The promoter must submit Form I-956K separate from the Form I-956F, Application for Approval of an Investment in a Commercial Enterprise, to seek approval of an investment in a commercial enterprise.

Any promoter employed to work as a promoter or otherwise engaged as a promoter on behalf of another promoter (including an entity) must submit Form I-956K and complete Part 2. about themselves and Part 3. to indicate the individual or entity employing them as a promoter. Part 2., Item Number 20., provides an area for these types of promoters to provide the necessary information for registration and provide USCIS information about the entity or individual that employs them.

A promoter must file an amendment if the list of entities identified in Part 3., Item Number 2. on the promoter's initial Form I-956K registration changes, either by the promoter entering into, terminating, or amending an agreement with an entity. The amendment must identify all entities the promoter currently operates on behalf of and not just the entity(ies) added or removed.
