| | | | | | I am performing ministerial or priestly functions for a religious denomination or interdenominational organization with a valid presence in the United States. I have been employed for 5 years or more by a U.S. nonprofit organization that principally promotes the interests of the United States abroad through the communications media. I am employed by an American institution of research recognized by the Radio Attorney General. I am employed by an American-owned firm or corporation engaged in the development of foreign trade and commerce for the United States. I am employed by a public international organization of which the United States is a member by law or treaty (and my employment began after I became a permanent resident). None of these apply to me. | Radio Radio Radio Radio Radio | | | | | |

| N-400, Application For Naturalization | | | Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, is an application to become a naturalized U.S. citizen. Naturalization is the process you take to voluntarily become a U.S. citizen if you were born outside of the United States. | | [External link] https://www.uscis.gov/citizenship-resource-center/learn-about-citizenship/naturalization-eligibility |
| Before You Start Your Eligibility Application | | | You will need to select your basis for eligibility after you start your application. There is more information about specific eligibility requirements following these general eligibility requirements. | | |
| | | | In general, you may apply for naturalization when you meet all the requirements to become a U.S. citizen. The following general eligibility requirements apply to most naturalization applicants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You are at least 18 years of age when you file; • You have been a lawful permanent resident of the United States for at least 5 years; • You have demonstrated continuous residence in the United States for at least 5 years; • You have lived in the U.S. state or U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) district where you claim residence for at least 3 months before filing; • You have demonstrated physical presence in the United States for at least 30 months (913 days); • You demonstrate good moral character; • You demonstrate an attachment to the principles of the U.S. Constitution; • You demonstrate a basic knowledge of U.S. history and government (also known as "civics") as well as an ability to read, write, speak, and understand basic English; and • You are willing to take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States, and you are well disposed to the good order and happiness of the United States. | | |
| | | [Accordion] | Lawful Admission for Permanent Residence | | |
| Lawful Admission for Permanent Residence | | | In general, you must show that you have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) in effect at the time of your admission or adjustment. This requirement applies to your initial admission as a lawful permanent resident (LPR) or adjustment to LPR status, as well as all subsequent reentries into the United States. | | |
| | | | In addition, you must show that you have not abandoned your LPR status. If you leave the United States and demonstrate you no longer intend to reside in the United States, that is abandoning LPR status. | | |
| | | | Time as a Lawful Permanent Resident | | |
| | | | In general, you must be a lawful permanent resident for 5 years before applying for naturalization unless you are: | | |
| | | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A U.S. noncitizen national (person born in American Samoa or Swains Island); • Applying for naturalization based on service in the U.S. armed forces; • Applying for naturalization based on being a spouse of a U.S. citizen, including the spouse of a U.S. citizen in qualified employment outside the United States; or • Applying for naturalization under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) based on being a spouse or child of a U.S. citizen who battered you or subjected you to extreme cruelty. | | |
| | | [Accordion continued] | U.S. Nationals | | |
| | | | If you are a U.S. noncitizen national (you were born in American Samoa or Swains Island), you may apply for naturalization without LPR status. | | |
| | | | Residence of Students | | |
| Lawful Admission for Permanent Residence | | | Lawful permanent resident students who are eligible for naturalization may apply for naturalization either in the USCIS district where they go to school or in the USCIS district where their parents live if they are still financially dependent on their parents. | | |
| | | | Applicants for Naturalization Based on Military Service During a Period of Hostilities | | |
| | | | If you apply for naturalization under INA section 329 (service during hostilities), you may apply for naturalization without LPR status, if you were in the United States or certain other specified areas at the time of enlistment, reenlistment, extension of enlistment, or induction. | | |
| | | | Conditional Permanent Residents | | |
| | | | If you are a conditional permanent resident, you must file Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence, or Form I-829, Petition by Investor to Remove Conditions on Permanent Resident Status, within 90 days before your conditional permanent resident status expires, unless you can establish good cause and extenuating circumstances for failing to file Form I-751 or Form I-829 during that time period. In most cases, you must have an approved Form I-751 or Form I-829 before we can approve your application for naturalization. | | |
| | | | Military members applying under INA section 329 and certain spouses of U.S. citizens employed outside the United States by qualified organizations under INA section 319(b) do not need an approved Form I-751 or Form I-829. | | |
| | | [Accordion] | | | |
| | | | In addition to the general eligibility requirements listed above, you must meet certain requirements if you seek to naturalize based on your marriage to a U.S. citizen. If you or your spouse were previously married, you must demonstrate that all of your and your spouse's previous marriages were lawfully terminated. | | |
| Eligibility Based on Marriage to a U.S. Citizen | | | Generally, to qualify for naturalization based on marriage to a U.S. citizen, you must meet these requirements at the time you file your application: | | |
| | | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You must be legally married to a U.S. citizen who resides in the United States, and you must remain legally married to the U.S. citizen until you take the Oath of Allegiance; • You must have been living in marital union with your U.S. citizen spouse for at least 3 years; • Your spouse must have been a U.S. citizen for at least 3 years; and • You must have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 3 years. | | |

| | Naturalization Testing and Exceptions | [Accordion] | Almost all applicants for naturalization must take a naturalization test to demonstrate that they are able to read, write, speak, and understand English, and that they have a basic knowledge of civics (U.S. history and government). You do not have to take the English reading, writing, speaking and understanding test, and you can take the civics test in a language of your choice if at the time you file your application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are 50 years of age or older and have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 20 years; or You are age 55 years of age or older and have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 15 years. If you are 65 years of age or older and have been a lawful permanent resident for at least 20 years, you may take a simplified version of the civics test. Learn more about the civics test here. You may be eligible for an exception to the English language test or civics test or both if you have a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment that has lasted, or is expected to last, 12 months or more. If you are requesting a medical exception to the English language and civics tests, answer "Yes" to the question in the Requests for Accommodations page in the About You section. You will also need to submit a completed Form N-648, Medical Certification for Disability Exceptions, with your Form N-400. You can find and download Form N-648 here. Note: If you need an interpreter and you qualify for an exception to the English part of the test, you must bring an interpreter to the interview. Legal Guardian, Surrogate, or Designated Representative If you cannot undergo any part of the naturalization process because of a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment, you may have a legal guardian, a surrogate, or an eligible designated representative complete the naturalization process for you. | | [External links] First Link: www.uscis.gov/citizenship Second Link: www.uscis.gov/N-648 |
| | Oath of Allegiance | [Accordion] | Oath of Allegiance If USCIS approves your application, you must take the Oath of Allegiance to become a U.S. citizen. In limited cases, you may take a modified Oath. Modification to the Oath You may request a modification to portions of the Oath requiring you to bear arms on behalf of the United States or perform noncombatant service in the U.S. armed forces if you have a religious or conscientious objection to those portions. You may not request a modification to the portion of the Oath requiring you to perform work of national importance under civilian direction. You may provide, but we do not require, an attestation from an organization, a witness statement, or any other evidence to support your objection to bear arms or perform noncombatant service. Affirmation You may request to substitute the words "solemnly affirm" for the words "on oath" and omit "so help me God." You may request this affirmation instead of an Oath for any reason without documentation. Oath Waiver You may receive a waiver of the Oath of Allegiance if you are unable to understand or to communicate an understanding of the meaning of the Oath because of a physical or developmental disability or mental impairment. | | |
| | Early Filing | | If you are applying based on lawful permanent residence for 5 years, you may generally file your application up to 90 days before meeting the required 5-year period of continuous residence as a lawful permanent resident. If you are applying based on your marriage to a U.S. citizen, you may generally file up to 90 days before meeting the required 3-year period of continuous residence as a lawful permanent resident. However, applicants filing up to 90 days before meeting the continuous residence requirement must still meet all other requirements for naturalization at the time of filing Form N-400. If these requirements are not met at the 90-day period, the applicant must wait to file until the requirement is met, otherwise, the application will be rejected or denied. For example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you are applying under Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 319(a) as the spouse of a U.S. citizen, you must have been married to a U.S. citizen for at least 3 years at the time you file Form N-400; or If you request an exception to the English testing requirements, you must meet the requirements for the exception (age and years as a lawful permanent resident) when you file Form N-400. Use the USCIS Early Filing Calculator to ensure that you file your Form N-400 no earlier than 90 days before you complete the required period. Note: We will reject your application if you submit it too early. | | [External link] https://www.uscis.gov/forms/uscis-early-filing-calculator |

| | | | | | Part 1 | What is your A-Number? | A- | Text input | The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 or 8-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or an immigration court recorder (for example, Form I-297, Receipt Notice of Employment Authorization Document, a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one for you. | Provide a 7, 8, or 9 digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zeros after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567. | | | Two images shown with question as examples of A-Number location on card | |
