N-286, The Request for a Hearing On A Decision In Naturalization Proceedings			You should use Form N-286, Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings under Section 236, to request a hearing before an immigration officer on the denial of your Form I-405, Application for Naturalization. You should use your Request for a Hearing (N-286) within 30 calendar days of receiving the denial of your Application for Naturalization. Generally, USCIS will accept a request that is not timely filed. However, if you do not timely file your request for a hearing, but it meets the requirements for a motion to reopen or motion to reconsider, USCIS will reopen or reconsider your case and send you a decision. Learn more about requesting a hearing.				https://www.uscis.gov/n-286
Before You Start Your Application	Eligibility Fee		You are eligible to submit a request if you believe USCIS incorrectly denied your Application for Naturalization (I-405) and you want to request a hearing with an immigration officer. We will automatically calculate the cost for you before you submit your request. See USCIS Information About Fees Available to This Item, and Form G-2955 . Fee waiver: If you are requesting a fee waiver, you cannot file online. You must mail a paper version of both the Form I-912, Request for a Fee Waiver and the form for the specific benefit you are requesting. You can review the fee waiver guidance at https://uscis.gov/i-912 . Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (hard of hard) hearing: 800-767-8833. 	Documents you may need		Before starting the Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (N-286), you may want to gather any documents that support your request. You may submit any additional documents or letters to support your request for a hearing where you file your request online or you may bring them with you to your hearing. USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (for example fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Before making a decision on your application or petition, After USCIS receives your petition and ensures it is complete, we will inform you so you can come to the interview or attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment or, if you are currently overseas, instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to set up an appointment. If you are required to provide biometrics, at the appointment you must give an oath reaffirming that: • You provided or authorized all information in the petition; • You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, the petition; and • All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing. If you fail to attend the biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your petition.
After You Submit Your Request	Track your case online Respond to requests for information Provide your biometrics Reschedule your decision		After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check your case status and read any important messages from USCIS. If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account. A few weeks after you submit your request, we will contact you to schedule an appointment at an Application Support Center near you. At the appointment, we will get your fingerprints, photograph, and signature. Once your application is approved, we will mail you your petition decision letter. Your letter will confirm next steps for obtaining your immigrant visa for entering the United States. For approved petitions for a spouse, unmarried children under 21 years of age or parents of U.S. citizens, immigrant visa numbers are immediately available and will be on the petition decision letter.
