Many of the optional forms provided by Animal Care such as the Attending Veterinarian sign-in sheet, APHIS forms 7019 and 7020, have been used for years and have served a valuable and useful purpose to help the licensees and registrants remain in compliance. Abolishing these forms and preventing inspectors from distributing them will probably be viewed as an act that demonstrates the government prioritizes cost savings over serving the American public. I will be very disappointed to see these forms disappear and wish that the legal "experts" wanting to get rid of them disappear instead.
